Carter 4-10

Jane Bennett, Thanks for your reply for Baines Carter!
 That's such an unusual name, I was hoping someone would pick it up! Your Baines Carter, who married Elizabeth Warren, migrated to Tx. with my Hugh L. Carter in the late 1840's. He is on the 1850 census, Cherokee Co. Tx., pg. 818 as Binge Carter age 29, B Tenn. Wife Eliz, 29, Ky., Son Abel, 12, Miss. Dtr. Cherity 10, Miss. Dtr. Tassy 4, Miss., Dtr Arthuly 2, TX., and son Wm. F. 4mo., bTX.. He is in very close proximity to my Hugh L. Carter, b ca 1805, Tenn. In 1860, he and wife Eliz. are living next door to the widow of my Hugh L. (who d 1855 with will) By 1860 he had Irvin, 9 b Tx, Eliz., 6, bTx, Elijah 4 b Tx and W>B 2, bTx. I can't find him in 1870, nor can I find the widow and children of my Hugh L. I feel that they were brothers (along with other Itawamba Co. Miss. Carters, and that they were the sons of Wm. Carter. Sr., b ca 1770/80, but have not been able to prove such... I'm also very interested in the Carter Indian Heritage angle of my ancestry. Searching for the desc. of Kilpatrick Carter, NE Miss. who married the dtr. of Levi Colbert, (Chicasaw Tribal Chief of 1830's era. Ever heard of any family tradition of such? One other thing, I can't prove who my Hugh married. I feel he married Elizabeth Dulaney. Ever heard of Carter-Dulaney match/ The Dulaney's also married into the Warren family there in Itawamba Co. Miss. Let me hear from you!

Dear Gay, I am also working on a Carter line that may fit in with yours. The farthest I can go back is Wm. Carter born 1810 in Tenn. 1830 Jefferson Co. census shows him age 20, wife age 15, her name was Polly. 1850 Itawamba Co., Miss. he is listed with Polly and 5 children. He named his first son Hugh. In 1860 he and 2nd. wife, Marcella are in Henderson Co., (next to Cherokee Co.) His Son, Hugh was married in Cherokee Co. in 1868. In 1880, Wm. Carter's widow was in Palo Pinto Co., Tex. Do you have any info that might show my William Carter to be brother to your Hugh Carter? There seems to be an awful lot of similarities.

Carter 4-11

Tex: Thanks for being so patient. Kindred Carter (c.1750-1800) came to Ga. from the Bertie-Edgecombe-Hertford area of NE North Carolina where his family had lived for several generations. He was the 5th generation in descent from Thomas Carter, Sr. who came in 1637 from England to Isle of Wight Co., Va. (on the James River) and married Eleanor. Their only child was Thomas, Jr. who>> married Magdalen Moore, (THIS IS THE CONFLICTING INFORMATION THAT HAS ME TERRIBLY CONFUSED) and left a will in 1710 in Isle of Wight Co. In this will Thomas Jr. did not name all of his children, but Moore Carter (c.1680-c.1741) who married Jane and moved to Bertie Co., NC is believed to have been his son. Moore left a will naming a son Isaac who married Ruth and died after 1790. Isaac and Ruth were the parents of Kindred and James, among others. Kindred and James both came to Ga. Kindred settled in Richmond Co. At his death in 1800 his estate was divided five ways. James b 1773 in N.C. d. 1858 in Schley Co., Ga. at the plantation>> of his son Wiley, (1798-1864).

Another source Thomas Carter Sr. (1610-1669) doesn't mention a spouse, but gives Thomas Carter, Jr. (1648-1717) as his son who married Magdalen Moore (1673), d/o George Moore, the powerful justice of the court of Isle of Wight County, Va. Moore Carter was their son (1680-1741). From there it is pretty much the same.

Another source, Thomas Carter Sr., came to America from England prior to 1652. He married Catherine Dale in 1670. His son Captain Thomas, Jr. (1672-1733) inherited the Carter home on the Coratomon River and married Arabella Williamson> Thomas Jr. had eight sons, two of whom (Moore and Isaac) came to Bertie Co, NC or bought land there as early as 1720. Moore was the father of Isaac. He made a deed of gift to his heirs on 2--8-1725: Jacob, Isaac and Joseph Carter. Isaac (I think this is the weak link in this lineage) Carter is mentioned as the father of James Carter, Sr., Bertie Co., NC in the NC Historical and Gen. Register by Hathaway. James (1740-1811) Will dated May 9, 1807 proven May 8, 1811 Warren Co., Ga. mentioned Sons: Jesse, moore, Isaac, Allen and James Carter plus 6 daughters. James Carter Jr., married Eleanor Duckworth prior to 1798. Their oldenst child, Wiley>>> Carter (1798-1864). I am positive that from Wiley onward I have the correct dates and info.

I will appreciate your looking in your book for any of these. I'm afraid you are right that these are different Meg Carter, Have been seeing your notes. Hope you don't mind if I communicate with you..I haven't linked my Carters to Robert "King" Carter, nor to Capt. Thomas, but I'm searching! A Langdon J. Would you mind looking in your "The Carter Tree" book to see if any of my Carter names appear? ie, Irwin[Irvin], Sanford, Samuel, Hugh L.[My line], Baines[Banes], and Wm. Jr...all possibly sons of William Carter, b ca 1770/80, and found in Itawamba Co. Miss. mid 1830's. 2] Your Wm. Sr. d 1845 in Patrick Co. Va.. I recently found Banes Carter, son of Jesse and Elizabeth, b 1796...m Julia Philpott in Patrick Co. Va. and d there 1865...Could we possibly have a link there in Patrick Co. Va.? I have done little study in that Co., but a lot of clues are leading me in that direction. My Hugh L. and his poss. bro. Banes wound up here in Tx, by 1850 Would appreciate your input. Gay, I found a Wm. Carter in Jefferson Co., Tenn. in 1830. He was listed as between 20/30 and wife between 15/20. I believe it is my Wm. because he would have been 20 and his wife "Polly" (last name unknown) would have been 15 in 1830 also their son, Hugh was born in 1832 or 1833 in Tenn. I have not found them in 1840. Their 3rd child (Polly Ann) was born in 1841 or 42 in Miss. William and Polly's children were: Hugh b. Aug. 1832/3 Tenn. m. Mary Emily Hill, 1868 in Cherekee Co. Tx. d. 1909 Henderson Co., Tx.

Emeline, b. 1833, Tenn. m. 1st. James Walling, 2nd. A. Romswall in Tx.

Elizabeth b. 1836, Tenn

Polly Ann (my ancestor) b. 1841/2, Miss. m. Samuel Lee 1865, Henderson Co., Tx.

William, b. 1849, Miss.

Arminda L. b. 1851, Texas, m. J. W. Carrol 1868, Tx. William married a second time Marcella Wiggins ca. 1853 in Cherekee Co., Tx. and had at least 8 more children.

Hope some of this info will help. I can not know for sure if that Wm. in Jefferson Co., Tenn. is mine or not but he could be however I donot find a William, Sr. there close by. but maybe he has already left. It looks like my Wm. seems to be following the older Carters to each state. This genealogy research is like trying to solve a mystery without all the clues. Will be anxious to hear what you think about all of this and any additional info you may have.

1840: Wm. Sr., Sanford, Hugh, Irvin, Baines Wm. Jr, Samuel, and Franklin(who I think is from a line that was in Tishomingo Co.) are all in Itawamba Co. Miss.

1850: Wm. Sr. must have d. Sanford(I am communicating with one of his desc. thru the Gen. Helper Roots Cellar), Irvin, and Wm. Jr. Calvin and Wm. G. are sons of Sanford. Aaron and Lee??Green?? and a John b SC and RG b NC who I do not feel are connected. Baines and my Hugh L. have migrated to Cherokee Co. Tx. Back to 1830..Between 1820/30 Wm. Sr. must have begun his migration to Miss...Stopping in Maarion Co. ,Ala. Carter Brief history of Sarepta as told to me by friends and relatives

Carter 4-15

In the year 1862 G. B. Denmon, his wife and 7 year old son left Lee County, Georgia by horsedrawn covered wagon and settled about 3 miles southeast of Sarepta. After building a log cabin and a log smoke house G. B. Denmon enlisted in the Confederate Army as forage master and was gone 3 years, leaving his wife and son in the above mentioned log cabin with a blind horse as the only transportation. His wife rode a side-saddle on this blind horse and the son rode behind his mother on this horse.

When he returned from the war, he and many others of the area including The Allens, Bigbees, Carters, Maynors and Houstons started building a community which later became known as Sarepta.

movement

The Siritual started with one small one room church and has now grown to a total of 5 churches, 2 Baptist, 1 Methodist, 1 Church of Christ and 1 Jehovah Witness.

The School or educational movement started with one small one room building and has now grown to a fine Southern Accredited High School with Gymnasium, Canning Center or Agriculturial Center Football Field & Cafeteria.

Sarepta was named for Sarepta Carter, an early resident of Sarepta. It was incorporated in 1955 and now has a very nice Municipal building. It has grown from 1 store to 4 stores including a nice and well stocked Supermarket. It has seven Filling stations and groceries combined. A Bank with all modern Parking Facilities and a nice Brick building which houses the Post Office.

In the early years of the community the only fuel was wood and a few home made tallow candles which were used for lighting. Clothing was Home made with the Spinning Wheel, Loom and Knitting Needle. The main source of income was from farming with cotton as the only money crop which was hauled to Shreveport by ox and horse teams and groceries and other supplies hauled back to Sarepta on the return trip. For starting fires, people would prepare rich pine sticks and rub them together until they would give off enough heat to produce a blaze.

In 1898 the L. & A. Railroad became a reality which added greatly to the Economy. Then the logging industry and the stave bolt from which was used to make barrell staves became a source of income. These logs and stave bolts were hauled into Sarepta entirely by ox and horse teams.

Late in 1921 the first gas well in this area was drilled by Harris Oil Company on what was then known as the Spanish Grant which land lies to the northwest of Sarepta. This was followed by an intensive drilling campaign and in 1924 there was enough gas being produced in the area that the Magnolia Gas Company installed a gas line from Sarepta to Beaumont, Texas to the Magnolia Refinery. This was followed in 1926 by an oil line being built from Beaumont through the Sarepta area to Eldorado, Arkansas with an oil pumping station being built near Sarepta. This was followed in 1928 by a large gas line being built by Magnolia Gas Company from Dallas, Texas through Sarepta to Alto, Louisiana which is near Monroe.

About 1917 the "T" Model Ford cars came into use at Sarepta which was the beginning of automobile use in the area. A round trip to Shreveport required from 5 to 6 hours in dry weather and was impossible in wet weather.

Carter 4-16

About 1924 was the beginning of the use of Natural Gas for fuel and about the same time Electricity became available in Sarepta.

In 1932 the Depression hit the United States and was severe in Sarepta but not quite as bad as some other places. Men were begging for work at 25 cents per hour. In 1933 came the N.R.A., and in 1937 the International Paper Company started construction of the Springhill Mill which started operations in 1938.

In 1960 on November 2nd. the Sarepta Water Works District started delivery to customers from their water system.

On February 2, 1971 the people of Sarepta voted a 1 cent Sales Tax and a Bond Issue to finance the construction of a Modern Sewer System for the town of Sarepta which it is hoped will be ready for use the latter part of 1971.

GREETINGS TO: Y'ALL @ Orangeburg German-Swiss Genealogical Society

Does Mr. Culler's book include data regarding the following families, particularly the first listed? (1) Yonge/Young (2) Buckhalter/Burkholder (3) Dantzler/Denzler. Is there enough data to justify my purchasing the book? Any replies will be greatly appreciated. Please reply to: rtstrongjr@pog.iquest.com

I am particularly interested in discovering the heritage of Miss Ann Elizabeth ("Nancy") Young who married Isaac Carter, soldier during the Revolution. They were apparently married in Orangeburg District/County either during or after the Revolution.

In the Isaac Carter household on the 1790 census of Orangeburg District, South, there were two males age 16 or over, so two families may have been residing together. There were three males under age 16 and three females in the household. This appears too many children for a couple that had only been married a few years; see further discussion below. Among their neighbors was a Thomas Young family; a widow, Sarah Young was in the general vicinity, with four other females in her home. The 1800 census reported the Carter family resided between the forks of the Edisto River. About early 1810 Isaac Carter and family migrated from Orangeburg District to Pike County, Mississippi. A history of Pike County described Nancy Young as "Dutch" and as "Dutch speaking" --probably meaning Deutch [German] speaking.

Brent H. Holcomb has informed me that there was no Nancy Young in the household of his ancestor, Thomas Young, Sr., who married Catherine Brandon. This was apparently NOT the Thomas Young on the 1800 census of Orangeburg County, page 100. In 1800, Isaac Carter and wife, and Thomas Young and wife were all age 26-44, thus born after 1755 and before 1775. This Thomas Young in Orangeburg District, thus, is more likely a brother of Nancy Young Carter than her father. Does anyone know anything about his ancestry?

Included in the R.W. pension application of Issac Carter of Pike County, MS, were affidavits signed by Benjamin Zachery, Leonard Varando, and John Bankston. Zachery stated he attended the wedding of Isaac Carter and Nancy Young [in Orangeburg District, SC?]. Peter Felder also made an affidavit for Nancy Carter in 1834. Some or all of there were Orangeburg residents who migrated to Pike County, MS, or nearby Louisiana parishes. Benjamin Zachary and Peter Felder were on the 1800 census of Orangeburg District, residing on the south side of the Edisto River.

Isaac Carter estimated his birth year as 1764. He entered the military very young and served more than one tour. He was at Valley Forge in the winter of 1777 [at age about 13?], he stated. He could have married either before or after his second tour of duty. He reportedly re-enlisted 1 JUL 1781 while in Orangeburg District, SC. He stated he resided in Cumberland County, NC, for three years after the war, then went to back to Orangeburg District, SC. I have estimated he arrived in Orangeburg District, SC, the second time about 1784 or 1785. It is possible he married Nancy before 1 JUL 1781, but more likely they married 1784 or 1785. Allen Carter, probably the eldest child of

Isaac and Nancy Carter, was born about 1786 in [Orangeburg District?] South Carolina, per Allen Carter's 1850 census in Pike Co., MS.

No records of Isaac Carter have yet been found in Cumberland County, NC, where he stated he was born and where he stated he resided after the war.

However, an Isaac Carter sold his land, which was granted in 1775, in adjacent Bladen County in 1783. This Isaac Carter in Bladen County was thus born 1754 or earlier and was too old to have been the Isaac who married Nancy Young. Could it have been Isaac Carter, Sr., who was enumerated in Orangeburg District, SC, in 1790, explaining the two males over age 16 and explaining why there were as many children as reported??? In 1800 Isaac and Nancy Carter had 1 son age 10-15 (Allen?) and 4 sons and one daughter less than 10 years of age. A Samuel Carter household and a David Young household was also in the general vicinity (between forks of Edisto) in 1800. A Samuel Carter was also in Pike County, MS, by 1816 (tax list). Isaac Carter and Samuel Carter are likely brothers.

Rita B. Denman of Richardson, Texas, shares this Carter-Young lineage. She placed a query in The Orangeburg German-Swiss Newsletter regarding Ann Elizabeth (Nancy) Young Carter, which appeared in the June, 1994, issue.

Rita Denman reported that she had ruled out the family of William Young and his wife, Mary Linder, as the parents of Ann Elizabeth (Nancy) Young.

In the colonial records of Georgia I have found proof that an Isaac Young family was among the early settlers in the German-Swiss community near Savannah, with notes that two of the sons, who were indentured servants, "ran away to Carolina." One of these two apparently died young. Other descendants of this Young family in Georgia might have migrated into South Carolina at a later time, as the Buckhalters did. Any information about German speaking families named Young in South Carolina, particularly Orangeburg or Edgefield Counties, will be appreciated.

I will post details about the Young immigrants to Georgia in a separate message.

HON. JOHN PRENTISS CARTER

Banker, Lawyer, Civic Leader

The warmth of the glory and chivalry of the old South radiated and softened the cool efficiency and modern practicability of one of Mississippi's most distinguished sons, the Hon. John Prentiss Carter, former lieutenant governor of Mississippi; Confederate soldier, member of two State Constitutional conventions, bank president, lawyer and financier. Descended from old American families, John P. Carter was born on February 7, 1840, near New Augusta, Mississippi, son of Abner and Isabella (McLeod) Carter. Abner Carter's parents, Isaac and Christiana Carter, emigrated from Georgia and settled on Leaf River, near New Augusta, when Mississippi was a territory, ^{see 1796} ~~about 1800~~. Isabella (McLeod) Carter was the daughter of John and Mary (Bethune) McLeod, who left their home in North Carolina and made their residence on the west side of the Chickasaha River, near the county line as it now stands between Wayne and Green Counties, ~~also~~ about the year 1800. John P. Carter's father and grandfather on his mother's side were both active in public affairs; John McLeod serving as delegate from what was then Jackson County to the Constitutional Convention that met in the Town of Washington, near Natchez, Mississippi, and adopted the first State Constitution (1817), and was also representative from Green County in Legislative sessions of 1822-1823, and also a state senator in 1826-1831-1833. Abner Carter served as a member of the Legislature from Perry County, in the sessions of 1829-1833-1835, and was a judge of the probate court of said county several years.

John Prentiss Carter attended Salem High School in Green County from 1849 to 1857, and in October, 1857, entered the Sophomore Class in Centenary College and was graduated in 1860 with the arts bachelor degree, receiving class honors. At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted as a private in the first company to leave for the war from Perry County - Company "G", the 27th Mississippi Infantry, Walthall's Brigade. Upon the organization of the Regiment, Mr. Carter was appointed sergeant major; was elected 2d lieutenant of his company in 1862, and was promoted 1st lieutenant in 1863. His company was assigned to Fort McRae in 1862 and remained in that post until General Bragg evacuated Pensacola and then helped to burn the Fort. First lieutenant Carter remained with his company in Mobile until General Bragg marched into Kentucky, and was then actively engaged in the Battle of Murfreesboro, December 31, 1862, and January 1st and 2nd, 1863, acting in this battle as adjutant to Colonel James L. Autry, commander of the 27th Regiment. Lieutenant Carter was with Colonel Autry when the latter was killed in the charge on a log cabin in a cedar thicket held by a company of sharp shooters. The Confederate charge was successful and they captured the sharp shooters, an ambulance wagon, five pairs of mules, medical supplies, and assisted in capturing a battery of four guns. His duties as adjutant were continued on the staff of Lieutenant-Colonel A. J. Hays while he was in command of the Regiment, and on the staff of Colonel James A. Campbell, who was appointed commanding officer of the 27th Regiment. On October 10, 1863, Lieutenant Carter was appointed acting ordnance officer of the brigade on the staff of General Walthall, continuing until the return of the regular ordnance officer. Ordered then to Chicamauga, Lieutenant Carter was engaged in that Battle on September 18, 19 and 20, 1863. The intensity of the War kept both armies on the move and on November 24, 1863, in the Battle of Lookout Mountain, Lieutenant Carter, stationed on the side of the Mountain on the extreme left of the battle line, was severely wounded and with a large part of the Regiment, was surrounded and captured. With Colonel Campbell, also captured at that time, he was taken to Johnson's Island in Lake Erie and kept a prisoner of war until the Confederate Armies surrendered, when he was paroled as a prisoner of war, June 24, 1865.

Returning from the War and once more a civilian, Mr. Carter studied law and was soon admitted to practice and became widely known as a lawyer of ability. His prominence as a lawyer and his personal popularity, led him into politics where he achieved great distinction. When in August, 1865, Governor W. L. Sharkey ordered an election of delegates from various counties to meet in Jackson, Mississippi, on August 14, 1865, to adopt a Constitution for the State, recognizing the freedom of the negro, Mr. Carter was elected delegate from Perry County, and was the youngest delegate in the convention. The Convention ordered in October of that year, an election of representatives and senators to the State Legislature and Mr. Carter was elected representative from Perry County. Elected to the Senate from the First District in 1873, he was re-elected in 1880. Again elected a representative from Perry County, in 1887, the Legislature, in 1888, provided for the calling of a Constitutional Convention in 1890, to which Mr. Carter was a delegate. That Convention drew up the present State Constitution of Mississippi, which Constitution includes among others, the "Franchise Article," by which political power of the State passed into the hands of white voters of the State. Mr. Carter was a member of the Franchise Committee that reported the article.

Mr. Carter was never defeated for public office; public confidence always reposed in him and supported him in any trust for which he asked. The last office he sought was a fitting climax to an unusually successful and useful career: He was elected Lieutenant Governor of the State in 1903 and served four years.

He was devoted to his old Confederate soldier friends, and was held in high esteem by them. In August, 1904, he was elected Brigadier-General, 2d Mississippi Brigade, Mississippi Division, United Confederate Veterans, at that society's meeting in Aberdeen, Mississippi, and reelected at the meeting held in Vicksburg, in 1905. He was a trustee of the Beauvoir Old Soldiers Home, starting in 1910, and was appointed by Major-General George P. Harrison, Commanding the Army of Tennessee, United Confederate Veterans, to his staff with the rank of Quarter Master General, holding that office also in 1914 and 1915. He also served with the rank of major on the staff of Major General Lowry. Hattiesburg Camp, No. 21, which he had helped to organize, elected him Captain Commander.

Mr. Carter was successful in business and financial affairs, and was known as a business man of unusual acumen. An organizer of the Bank of Commerce of Hattiesburg, he was its first president and when, in 1899, the institution became the First National Bank, he continued in that office. He voluntarily resigned as president of the bank in 1924, and was then elected chairman of the board of directors. His banking activities performed a real service for that congressional district. During these days there were but few financial institutions in the section and his bank covered a large territory. He was also an organizer of the Board of Trade of Hattiesburg and served as its first president. A Mason since early manhood, he was a member of Perry County Lodge, but later transferred his membership to Hattiesburg. He was a Knight Templar, Shriner, Scottish Rite 32d degree, and a member of ^{B/L O X I} Hattiesburg Consistory.

Religion was vital to Mr. Carter and he was a lifelong member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. His home always had been the headquarters for ministers and in the early days, before railroads, traveling ministers always found his latch string hung out, and scarcely a week passed by that did not see one or more preachers as guests there. Until late in life he was a member of the boards of stewards of the church.

His marriage on December 24, 1869, to Margaret C. McCallum, daughter of John McCallum and Annie (Hartfield) McCallum united two old families. John McCallum was a Scotchman, and for many years prior to his death, was an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and the mainstay of that church in his community. Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Carter: 1. John McCallum, born November 10, 187⁶⁹~~1~~, married Minnie Ford, and they are the parents of three children: Margaret; John McCallum, and Louise. 2. Dr. Abner Prentiss, born October 30, 1873, married Rebecca Cook; have a son, John Prentiss, second, who married Kathryn Jordon, and they have a daughter, Elizabeth. 3. George Henry, born January 3, 1875, married Nan McLeod, and have two children: Webster McLeod, and George Henry Jr. 4. Annie Isabella, born December 19, 1880. 5. Charles Galloway, born in 1885, married Sallie Bell Gresham, and they have a son, Charles Gresham. 6. Martha Ruth, born in 1887, and married ^{NEIL FAIRLEY} ~~Neil~~ Fairly.

John Prentiss Carter died on July 23, 1925. His death caused deep mourning on all sides. He was one of the best known and best liked men of his generation and his reputation extended throughout the State he loved. He was active and diligent in all affairs of life and was peculiarly fitted for helpful work and unusual service. Probably no better testimony can be written than that of a Hattiesburg newspaper, which stated editorially: "The example and memory of such a life is worth more to those who remain than any material benefit. His life is a rich heritage to his family and the community."

CARTER FAMILY OUTLINE

Carter 4-44

Matthew and Patience Carter of North Carolina were the parents of three Revolutionary War Soldiers; Isaac, Matthew and Thomas, all three of whom migrated to and became citizens of South Mississippi. Isaac served in the North Carolina Militia. Matthew served first in the North Carolina Militia, then became one of Marion's in South Carolina, moved to Georgia about the turn of the century and led a migration to Mississippi in 1811. Thomas Carter also became a citizen of Mississippi and reared his family there.

Carter 4-53

Dear John Lovett:

This is to clarify my request about the cemetery where believe that Matthew Carter, Revolutionary Soldier, who died in Jackson County in 1812 is buried. We are assuming that he was buried in cemetery which is one mile from where he died and in which his son William Carter, who also lived near, is buried. I have the list of the marked graves in this cemetery which include: William Carter died 1852 and his wife Mary Goff Carter, died 1872; Samuel Davis, born 1795, died 1868; and W.B. Carter and his wife Susan, died 1887, the grandparents of Grover, Hurd, and Jack Carter.

The above will identify the cemetery. What I want is the name of the owner of the land on which this is located in order for me to get permission to have the marker put there.

In order that you may get a picture of the Carter family tree (which will be in my second volume of FOUR CENTURIES ON THE PASCAGOULA) I am giving a brief outline here.

Isaac, Thomas, and Matthew Carter, brothers, all Revolutionary Soldiers, came to Mississippi by or before 1811. Matthew died in 1812. I have copies of letters written by him and his descendants back to their relatives in Georgia from 1811 for the next forty years.

FAMILY HISTORY

REUBEN URIAH & MARY ELIZABETH CARTER

It is believed that Reuben and Elizabeth began their married life near Meridian, Ms, though so far there is no record of the marriage. Reuben joined the Confederate Army on Aug. 18, 1862 in Meridian. He served as a member of Company A, 40 Regiment, Miss. Volunteers and was wounded in battle in Sept. 1862.	Reuben was a Mason and was reported to have helped charter the Lodge in Bald Knob. Reports also say that there is a portrait of him hanging in the lodge. He is buried just South of the Walmsley plot in Shady Grove Cemetary. The headstone broke up and has been removed, but there is a picture of it taken in 1967.
The family moved to Arkansas between 1876 and 1880. By 1880 they were living in Lonelm, a small community between Mulberry and Ozark in NW Arkansas. Reuben operated a General Store in Lonelm. They migrated to White Co., AR around 1890 and settled between Bald Knob and Russell, later building a home NW of Bald Knob.
Their farm provided for most of their needs. They kept sheep and corded and spun their own wool, which Eliz. knitted into sweaters, underwear and socks for her children and grandchildren. Reuben kept bees, and once had a glass bee hive built so that the children could observe the workings of the bees. Elizabeth was said to have been superstitious, and always put a broom across the door at night to keep out the "haints". She also put out food for "the little people", according to her grandson, Roy. She became partially paralyzed as a result of either a fall or a stroke. Two young girls known as the Bowman Twins lived in the Carter home and cared for her.
Sometime after 1900, the family moved back to Mulberry where Reuben operated a Merchantile. Elizabeth died there and is buried in New Cemetery in an unmarked grave. Reuben returned to White Co, where he died.	Copy obtained from Woody Carter of Mosselle, MS.. Author of this page believed to be Don's J. Dear Society,

I recently began research on the Carter / Goff / George and Lott families that settled in the Jackson County, Mississippi and Mobile County, Alabama areas. If you could send me a list of any publications you have that might prove of assistance, I would be most appreciative. The graduate library at UNC does have a copy of Four Centuries on the Pascagoula but not much else that helps. Ms. Martin at the Pascagoula Public Library sent me what she could find which was an immense help on the Carter and George families.

My great-grandmother was Vermie (George) Lott, the daughter of Reuben Turner George and Cassandra Carter. She was born in Jackson County in 1855 and married Milton C. Lott at a date I have yet to be able to determine.

Yours sincerely,
Trashall McNeill

Thomas Lamb was the first of that name to patent land in current Robeson 15 March 1756 on "Hogg Swamp next to the Poplar Spring."¹ Thomas added 300 acres to his holdings in 1757 with land west of Drowning Creek.² He added still another 100 acres about three miles below his plantation south of Hogg Swamp in 1758.³

Carter 4-75

The second person named Lamb to appear in the Robeson records was somewhat unusual. Mary Lamb was one of the few women who obtained a land patent in the wilds of early Bladen. Much like Thomas Lamb she obtained 100 acres west of Drowning Creek on Hogg's Swamp in 1757.⁴ In the same year a third Lamb, Abraham, patented 300 acres on Hogg's Swamp just below Isaac Lamb's plantation.⁵ Thus Isaac had already been residing in the area before he patented land. Next year Isaac Lamb obtained 100 acres south of Drowning Creek on Old Field Swamp.⁶ Thus there were at least four, early-settling Lamb families, Abraham, Isaac, Mary and Thomas, settled around Hogg's Swamp in Robeson by 1758. They lived near each other and were probably of close kin. Mary Lamb's will in Bladen County was dated 11 Nov. 1769 and named Jacob, Isaac, Joshua, Thomas, and Absalom Lamb as well as Thomas Clark, Hardy Inman, Mary S. Keeper, Rachel Davis, and Patience Carter as legatees. Executors were Jacob and Isaac Lamb with Jesse Pittman and Needham Lamb as witnesses.⁷ The probate date for the will is not known but Mary appears to have died prior to the creation of Robeson County in 1787.

The first deed books of Robeson, between 1787 and 1793, show no less than eight Lambs involved in land transactions: Arthur, Arthur Jr., Benjamin, Campbell, Isaac, James, Meedy (Meady), and Thomas.

MEADY LAMB OF ROBESON COUNTY⁸

Woodrow J. Dickson

We have traced the Lamb family back to Meady Lamb in Robeson County, North Carolina. He was born about 1755 and was in the State Militia from the Wilmington District. He married Nancy Britt about 1776. They had the following family (all born near present Lumberton).

Sept. 5th 1851

Dear Brother and Sister;

I have seated my self this morning in haste, in order to give you a short sketch of our trip home. The first night we staid at Mr. Mounts, on Tuesday evening we got Mr. Mack Swains on Wednesday we were detained in Augusta some time at the land office, then calling at Cousin William Carters, caused us to camp out that night a little above the old man Sumner lands, where we found rough tomers, the musketoos and snuffles scarcely as sleep any at all, ^{Thursday} on ~~the~~ night we had the same luck to camp out, and I can tell you had quite a serious time. we had a tremendous heavy rain, hard thunder and lightning, what made it worse with me, we had just heard that evening, about John McDonald losing a valuable Negro man by thunder and lightning, they tried ^{what} to do ~~what~~ they could but all to no effect, on Friday Evening we reached home, found our concerns much as when we left, we had but very little rain during the time that we were gone people are seriously ~~injured~~ up here we have had a good season since we returned, it is thought that it be consid erable help to cotton but none to corn, I would, ^{say father} to, that Mack thinks it would be best for him to get, ^{Carter H-83} some three or four bottles of Sassafrasilla in Mobile and take it first as we believe it will take a great deal, to effect ~~an~~ cure or even relieve him, by doing so it ^{will} give him time a plenty to get the vine and prepare the other and take it last, and take it last ~~and~~ take a plenty of it, I would say to ~~the~~ that I intend sending Elizabeth ~~the~~ fell down, by Dr Thurst, he expects to go down in about two weeks

a protracted meeting will commence here at Hopewell in few days,
the Camp meeting at Spring hill ~~up~~ here will commence on the 13th of this month

you must write often and let me hear from you, for I feel more anxious to see you, than I ^{did} before I went down

I have the painful the sorrowful intelligence, to inform you of ^{the} death of Mrs William Ore mick. She suffered long and suffered ^{much} ^{Carter 4-84} much. but she has ^{left} a living testimony behind that she has gone to rest, she appeared during her sickness to be perfectly resigned to the will of god she said all ^{was} well, that she saw her way clear but leaving her children was the hardest thing before her, her husbands health is bad, and in all probability said she, in a short time my small children, will be left without father or mother in the world.

She shook hands with all her children but could not speak, the pallet of her mouth was down, a mortification took place in her throat and breast, and she died in a few hours
I saw Rebecca Soper on yesterday just from there she told me that she had never witnessed such a time before in her life,
May the god of love and peace be with you all, is the fervent wish, of your unworthy sister;

AND OF TENNESSEE

WILLIAM GLOVER of Kempston, Bedfordshire, England, did not like his name, so changed it, as was the custom of the time, to WILLIAM CRANFEILD. In 1522, he married KATHARIN___ and, in 1536, he made his will. He had two children: WILLIAM CRANFEILD, Junior, who died without issue, and all property went to ELIZABETH CRANFEILD, the daughter. She was sole heir and married WILLIAM CARTER of Kempston, in county Bedford, England.

Reference: 1634 Visitation of Bedfordshire, Harleian Society Publications, vol. 19. This Visitation was signed in 1634 by THOMAS CARTER, born 1575, as the oldest living member of this family. The original document is in the British Museum.

1. WILLIAM CARTER, who married ELIZABETH CRANFEILD [above], died in 1569. Victoria History of the Counties of England, A History of Bedfordshire, Vol. III (1912), "Kempston", states: "...Anthony, elder brother of Thomas Denny, who in 1546 sold the manor to WILLIAM CARTER of Bromham, yeoman, to hold of the king for one-twentieth of a knight's fee and an annual rent of 6s. 8d. WILLIAM CARTER died in 1569, when the manor was called Oakes Farm, worth £2 yearly, and the estate, which comprised other lands in Kempston worth 17s. 4d. a year, descended to his son and heir WILLIAM. The latter, who died in 1605, left a son and heir THOMAS, aged 31 [born 1575]...."

WILLIAM and ELIZABETH (CRANFEILD) CARTER had four daughters and one son: PARADISE CARTER, wife to EDWARD WILLIAMS of ye town of Bedford; WINIFRED CARTER, wife to ___HART of Packington, County Warwick; MARY CARTER, wife to ___NICHOLLS of Bedford; MILLICENT CARTER; and WILLIAM CARTER, fifth child and only son.

References: 1634 Visitation of Bedfordshire, op. cit.; Victoria History of the Counties of England, op. cit., "Kempston".

2. WILLIAM CARTER, son of WILLIAM and ELIZABETH (CRANFEILD) CARTER, married MARY ANSCCELL [ANSTELL]. WILLIAM was buried 1 December 1605, and a brass plate was placed in the floor of the nave of the Kempston church, just in front of the front pew on the right side of the church. The brasses (for there are two, on one of which are etched figures purporting to be William and, apparently, his sons) were still intact in September, 1971, and the inscription reads:

"Here lieth the body of WILLIAM CARTER, GENT: who tooke to wife MARIE the daughter of THO: AUNSELL, ESQ: by whom he had issue seaven sones and ten daughters he died the first day of September, 1605, she surviving in memoriall of her affection to him living caused this monument to be made over him...."

Apparently, the date of burial entered in the Kempston Parish Church records was that when the brasses were placed, or it is a typographical error in Genealogia Bedfordiensis, quoted infra.

MARY (ANSCCELL) CARTER was the daughter of THOMAS ANSCCELL, ESQ., of Barford, Bedfordshire, England (1520-1591), by his wife, ELIZABETH WHEATLEY, daughter of ROBERT WHEATLEY (also known as QUYTLAW OF JONEBY), County Cumberland, Gent., and his wife, CATHERINE, daughter of RICHARD FYSSHER of Pavenham, Gent., County Bedford. THOMAS ANSCCELL, also written Anstell, was the son of EDWARD ANSCCELL, of Westmounton and Tawnton, County Somerset, Gent. [by his wife, WETHLYAN, daughter of ___AP POWELL of Wales], EDWARD being the son of JOHN ANSCCELL, near Exeter in County Devon.

The Victoria History of the Counties of England, op. cit., "Great Barford, Barford Hundred, Bedfordshire", states:

"On the north wall of the [Barford Parish Church] chancel is an alabaster and black marble monument to THOMAS ANSELL and his wife ELIZABETH, face to face, under a cornice carried by Corinthian columns; behind the man are the effigies of four sons and behind his wife those of seven daughters. Above are the arms: gules, a saltire or, between four bezants, for ANSELL, and by the heads of THOMAS and his wife are, respectively, ANSELL impaling two hands joined supporting a heart, for WHEATLEY, and WHEATLEY alone".

The monument was still intact in September, 1971, and the inscription reads:

"Here lyeth the body of THOMAS ANSCCELL Sonne & Heir to EDWARD ANSCCELL of Westmounton in the county of Somers: Gent: who had to wife ELIZAB: WHETLEY daughter and coheir of ROBERT WHETLEY of Joneby in the county of Cumberland, ELIZABETH (WHEATLEY) ANSCCELL, wife of THOMAS, was buried 7 November 1597.

3. ANSCCELL CARTER, was baptized 28 October 1591, in Kempston, Bedfordshire, England. He married JANE MYLES, daughter of JOHN MYLES of Graveley, Co. Hertford. At the Visitation of the Heralds from the College of Arms in 1634, ANSCCELL (ANSYLL) CARTER of London, Grocer, had one daughter, Jane, and six sons living: GEORGE, JOHN, ANSYLE, WILLIAM, JAMES, and THOMAS.

4. Captain THOMAS CARTER, son of ANSCCELL and JANE (MYLES) CARTER, was born 1630/31 and died in Lancaster County, Virginia, 22 October 1700, "aged about 70 years." He married KATHARINE DALE, who died, 10 May 1703, also in Lancaster County, Virginia, "in the 51st year of her life".

Captain THOMAS CARTER came to Nansemond County, Virginia, in 1649/50, about the time Charles I was beheaded. JOHN CARTER of "The Nest", Lancaster County, Virginia, writing in 1858, said THOMAS' "brother JOHN" came to Virginia with THOMAS and settled south of the river in Essex. THOMAS appears in Lancaster County, Virginia, before the year 1653, aged 22, when he paid tithes for himself and four servants. (See William Armstrong Crozier, ed., Virginia County Records, Vol. 5, Virginia Heraldica, Being a Registry of Virginia Gentry Entitled to Coat Armor [Baltimore: 1965, reprint of the 1908 edition], pp. 87-88.) From Colonel JOHN CARTER, who had gone to Lancaster County from Nansemond County about the time THOMAS landed in Nansemond County, Virginia, Captain THOMAS bought 800 acres in Lancaster County on the "Easternmost" branch of the Corotoman River and, 1 June 1654, acknowledged the debt in court: 12,852 pounds of tobacco to be paid the following October "at ye dwelling house of the sd Mr. Tho: Carter", and 130 pounds sterling on 18 September 1655. By 1663, although as yet unmarried, he had a home in Lancaster County named "Barford" and was paying tithes on twenty persons. He was commissioner of Lancaster County Court, 1663; deputy clerk of the county, 1663-65; burgess in 1667; vestryman of Christ Church and of St. Mary's Whitechapel; captain of militia. Captain THOMAS acquired land by transporting eight persons, by purchase, and by gifts from his father-in-law, Major EDWARD DALE, totalling about 3,200 acres of land. (Lancaster County, Virginia, County Court Records; William and Mary Quarterly, 2d Series, Vol. 17, p. 276; J. L. Miller, op. cit., "With this Book pr[ayers] Rv Mr. John Shepperd on Wednesday ye 4th Day of May 1670 was Mard Mr. Thomas Carter of Barford in ye County of Lancaster in Virg^a & Katharine Dale ye eldest Daugh^r of Mr. Edw: Dale ye same County." Entry in Carter Prayer Book, printed in Joseph Lyon Miller, and in William and Mary Quarterly.)

On 4 May 1670, Captain THOMAS CARTER of "Barford", Lancaster County, Virginia, married KATHARINE DALE, born 1652, the elder daughter of Major EDWARD DALE, "armiger", by his wife, DIANA SKIPWITH, daughter of Sir HENRY SKIPWITH, Baronet of Prestwould, Leicestershire, England, and his wife, Lady AMY, daughter and co-heir of Sir THOMAS KEMPE. The Skipwiths were the old Norman family of D'ESTOUTEVILLE ("Stuteville" in England) and descended from King HENRY III of England through at least four of his grandchildren, from the DYMOKES, Hereditary Champions of the Kings of England (Sir LIONEL DYMOKE participating in the Coronation of Queen ELIZABETH II), the MARMLIONS, Hereditary Champions of the Dukes of Normandy, the DE BOHUNS, DE CLARES, DE TOENIS, DE MONTGOMERYS, FITZ ALANS, DE WELLES of Gainsby, DE BEAUMONTS, WILLIAM MARSHALL, DE BEAUCHAMPS, ROBERT DE BELESME, BIGODS, DE WARENNES, DE MOWBRAYS, DE BRAOSES, etc., as well as a number of lines directly from RAGNWALD, Earl of Møre and The Orcades, the father of ROLLO The Dane. Of 18 Magna Carta Surety Barons known to have had descendants, the Skipwiths are descended from 14; several of the other ancestors of the Skipwiths backed another Skipwith ancestor, King John, in the controversy.

"Febr: primo 1664."

The coat of arms of Sir Henry Skipwith, Bart., father of DIANA (SKIPWITH) DALE: Argent, 3 bars gules, a greyhound in full course in chief, sable, collared or. Crest: A turnstile proper. Motto: "San Dieu je ne puis." (Burke, Dictionary of Peerage and Baronetage, Vol. 3, pp. 1273-74; Virginia Heraldica, op. cit., "Skipwith", etc.)

A volume could be written on Major EDWARD DALE, father of KATHARINE (DALE) CARTER. He held many offices in Lancaster and Westmoreland Counties, Virginia, was High Sheriff of Lancaster, 1670, 1671, 1679, and 1680, Major in the Militia, a burgess, and vestryman of St. Mary's White Chapel Church, and a very strong-willed and well-educated man of unswerving principle.

On the 8th of February, 1670, "Mr. Edward Dale, Clerk of this [Lancaster] county & in Commission for the peace, and High Sheriff of this County conceiving himself sufficiently qualified to sett covered in Court w[hilch] some of ye sd Justices would not allow of they did thereupon ajourn till ye second Wednesday in the month next." Major Dale was obviously aware, as his fellow justices were not, that the Sheriff represented the King's person in the King's Court, in the absence of the King himself, and was, thus, entitled to "sett covered" as the King did. [See Blackstone on the English Sheriff.]

The crest of Major Dale, as shown on his seal at Lancaster County Court House: On a chapeau gules, turned up ermine, a heron argent, beaked, legged, and ducally gorged or. This crest and the arms ascribed to Major Dale (Virginia Heraldica) are those confirmed in 1613 to WILLIAM DALE of London and Brigstock, Northamptonshire, England, of the Dale family of Wencle, Cheshire. This WILLIAM DALE of London married 19 May 1583, ELIZABETH ELLIOTT, of St. Mary Magdalen, spinster, at St. Peter's, Paul's Wharf, London. ELIZABETH was the daughter of THOMAS ELLIOTT, Esq., of Surrey. [For the Elliott family, see Harleian Manuscript 1561, folio 21b, 22b, 23, and 23b, Visitations of Surrey.]

Major EDWARD DALE made his will on the 24th day of August 1694, in which he leaves his wife, DIANA (SKIPWITH) DALE, a life interest in his entire estate, describing her as "an honest woman, a Gentlewoman, and a great many years my wife." After his wife's death, his daughter, KATHARINE CARTER was to have the control and use of all the estate until her children were all of age; at that time, his grandsons PETER and JOSEPH CARTER were to have the Dale home plantation in St. Mary's Parish, with all plantation tools, etc.; granddaughter ELIZABETH CARTER was to have his "best bed and furniture" and a trunk; daughter ELIZABETH (DALE) RODGERS was to have £12 in full satisfaction of all claims on Major Dale's estate; the residue of the estate was to be divided equally among his grandchildren ELIZABETH, CATHARINE, PETER, and JOSEPH CARTER when they should come of age or marry; daughter KATHARINE CARTER and grandson EDWARD CARTER to be executors of his will and granddaughter ELIZABETH CARTER, also, when she attained 16 years of age.

The inventory of Major Dale's estate was filed in court on 30 March 1695, and amounted to 10,607 pounds of tobacco, the then current method of valuing property in Virginia.

Although Major Dale's grave has not been located, his epitaph is set out in Captain THOMAS CARTER's Prayer Book, as follows:

Captain THOMAS CARTER's Prayer Book has been found and the entries written in the Prayer Book have been published by Dr. Joseph Lyon Miller, whose heirs now own the Prayer Book, in his book, The Descendants of Captain Thomas Carter of "Barford", Lancaster County, Virginia, and in the William and Mary College Quarterly. The names, birthdates, and marriages of the children of Captain THOMAS and KATHARINE (DALE) CARTER are set out therein, as follows:

The will of Captain THOMAS CARTER, dated 16 August 1700, was probated 1700 in Lancaster County, Virginia, and names his sons EDWARD, THOMAS, Jr., JOHN, HENRY, JAMES, Major EDWARD DALE, son-in-law WILLIAM GEORGE, his "Loving Wife", KATHARINE, to be executrix of the will. The home plantation was left to son THOMAS, Jr., after the death of KATHARINE (DALE) CARTER, and there were specific bequests, the residue of his estate to be divided equally among all his children.

5. "HENRY SKIPWITH [CARTER], 4th Sonn THO. & KATH. CARTER born of a Wednsdy the 7th June 1676 & was baptzd att Home by Rev Mr. Dogette on Sunday aftr Service ye 18th. Capn Wm Ball, Capn David Fox and Mrs. Srah Fleet standing". [Capn David Fox married Hannah Ball, sister of William Ball; Hannah Fox and William Ball were aunt and uncle to Mary Ball Washington, mother of President George Washington.]

HENRY SKIPWITH CARTER was in England on 22nd October 1700, when his father made his will, as stated therein, and the will provides that, if Henry "doesn't come in again" to Virginia, the land devised to him is to go to his brother James. Henry did return, however, and, on 6 May 1704, married ANNE, daughter of GAINY HARRIS of Lancaster County, Virginia, then deceased. From 1728 to 1740, HENRY CARTER was continuously a member of the Lancaster County Court; he was vestryman of, Christ Church, as was his brother THOMAS, Jr., and his father, also, before them.

The children of HENRY SKIPWITH CARTER and ANNE (HARRIS) CARTER were:

- i. GAINY;
- ii. CATHERINE;
- iii. ANNE; all of whom died prior to 1749 unmarried;
- iv. ELIZABETH;
- v. JOHN, No. 6, below;
- vi. JOSIAH, who married BETTY DOGGETT (Lancaster County Bond, 7-24-1753), he died 1763 in Lancaster County, Virginia;
- vii. HENRY (HARRY);
- viii. ROBERT, who died in Culpeper County, Virginia, after 1767, Josiah and Harry remaining in Lancaster County, Virginia.

HENRY SKIPWITH CARTER died in 1743 in Lancaster County, Virginia. His will, dated 21 March 1732, was admitted to probate on 10 October 1743. The home plantation was left to his son GAINY and the others mentioned in his will are sons ROBERT, JOHN, HARRY, JOSIAH; mother, KATHARINE DALE; brother THOMAS CARTER; "Cousin Thomas Carter"; daughters CATHERINE, ANN, and ELIZABETH.

6. JOHN CARTER, son of Henry Skipwith Carter and Anne (Harris) Carter, was born in 1708, died 1782, although the exact date of his death is not known. The Stafford County, Virginia, Wills for the period in which he died were destroyed in the War Between the States, so we do not have John's will.

Carter 4-90

John married, first, in 1727, SUSANNAH PAYNE of of Lancaster County, Virginia, born 1710. (Lancaster County, Virginia, Marriage Records) She was the daughter of WILLIAM PAYNE, Jr., and wife, JUDITH (WOOD) PAYNE, young widow of THOMAS BARKER, and sister of WILLIAM PAYNE III, MERRIMAN PAYNE, and JUDITH PAYNE, who married GEORGE BALL. SUSANNAH's father, WILLIAM PAYNE, Jr., was the son of WILLIAM PAYNE, Sr. (son of RICHARD PAYNE, son of JOHN PAYNE, the first of this family to Virginia. He was also brother to JOHN PAYNE and to GEORGE PAYNE, grandfather of DOLLEY PAYNE MADISON. See Pittman, Americans of Gentle Birth; Northumbria Collectanea, 1645-1720, p. 31; William and Mary College Quarterly, 1st Series, Vol. 17, p. 197, Vol. 2, p. 48. And, SUSANNAH MERRIMAN, wife of WILLIAM PAYNE, Sr. SUSANNAH MERRIMAN was the only child of RICHARD MERRIMAN, often spelled Merryman, and his wife, SUSANNA. (Lancaster County Deeds, 1665; Will of Richard Merriman proved 10 June 1696, Lancaster County, Virginia.)

JOHN and SUSANNAH (PAYNE) CARTER lived in Lancaster County, Virginia, but, after her death, John moved to Stafford County, Virginia, where he died. He married a second time, a Miss BUTLER.

JOHN and SUSANNAH (PAYNE) CARTER's children were:

- i. RICHARD, born 1728;
- ii. WILLIAM MERRIMAN ("MERRY"), No. 7, below;
- iii. JOSIAH, born 1732;
- iv. ANNE, born 1734.

RICHARD settled in Baltimore, but the other sons stayed in the southern Virginia counties. (Joseph Lyon Miller, op. cit.; D.A.R. Lineage Books: Mary Esther Carter Cowan, Gladys Carter, et al.)

7. WILLIAM MERRIMAN CARTER, called MERRY, was born in 1730 in Lancaster County, Virginia, and died circa 1818, possibly in Tennessee. He married FRANCES LEFTWICH, called FANNY, and they made their home in Bedford County, Virginia. She died apparently before 1818, as MERRY's estate was administered that year and his estate went to his children.

MERRY grew up in Stafford County, Virginia, where he and his brothers and sister moved after their mother's death. He fought in the French and Indian War from Lunenburg and Bedford Counties, Virginia, with two Leftwich brothers, WILLIAM and THOMAS LEFTWICH (William Waller Hening's Statutes of Virginia, Vol. 7, 69-3291, pp. 206, 223, 225), whose sister FRANCES he married. FRANCES LEFTWICH was the daughter of AUGUSTINE LEFTWICH, Sr., son of THOMAS LEFTWICH, son of RALPH LEFTWICH, the first of the family to America. AUGUSTINE LEFTWICH, Sr., was born in Caroline County, Virginia.

The children of AUGUSTINE LEFTWICH, Sr., all of whom were by his first wife, whose name is said to have been ELIZABETH (he married, secondly, ELIZABETH STOVALL, and this may have caused researchers to believe his first wife was named Elizabeth) were:

- i. Colonel WILLIAM LEFTWICH, born 1737, married ELIZABETH HAYNES;
- ii. FRANCES (FANNY) LEFTWICH, born 1738, married WILLIAM MERRIMAN ("MERRY") CARTER;
- iii. Colonel THOMAS LEFTWICH, born 1740, married MARY CHALLIS, BETHUNIA ELLIS, and JANE STRATTON;
- iv. Major AUGUSTINE LEFTWICH, Jr., born 1744, married MARY TURNER and SARAH TURNER;
- v. MARY LEFTWICH, born 1746, married JOSHUA EARLY, Sr.;
- vi. Captain URIAH LEFTWICH, born 1748, married NANCY KEITH;
- vii. Captain JOHN LEFTWICH, born 1750, married and died in Georgia; he is said to have had at least two sons;
- viii. REBECCA LEFTWICH, born 1752/3, married CHARLES MOORMAN, first wife;
- ix. Colonel LITTLEBERRY LEFTWICH, born 1757, married FRANCES HOPKINS and FRANCES HALLEY;
- x. General JOEL LEFTWICH, born 22 November 1760, married NANCY ANN TURNER;
- xi. NANCY LEFTWICH, born 1762, married JAMES PETROSS [PETRA];
- xii. JAMES LEFTWICH, born 1764, died a young man, s.p.;
- xiii. General JABEZ LEFTWICH, born 1766, married DELILAH STOVALL.

The Leftwich family are descended from the Norman family of SAINT-SAUVEUR, Vicomtes of the Cotentin, Normandy, whose progenitor was MALAHULC DE TRESNEY (DE TOESNI), uncle of ROLLO The Dane. Cadet branches of the SAINT-SAUVEURS include the families of DE TOENI, FITZ HAMON, and MESCHINE Earls of Chester, all of whom are ancestors of the descendants of MERRY and FRANCES (LEFTWICH) CARTER. The arms which appear in the Leftwich charts in the British Museum in various manuscripts and in the Visitations of Cheshire are: Azure, three garbs or, on a fess engrailed argent. The crest: five leaves conjoined at base, vert. The motto: "Vernon semper floret".

The children of MERRY and FANNY (LEFTWICH) CARTER, all born near Liberty, Bedford County, Virginia, were:

- i. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, born 1760, died in Revolutionary War;
- ii. AUGUSTINE ("AUGUST"), born 1762, married 1784, NANCY PULLEN;
- iii. JOEL, born 1764, married 1784, Miss PETRA;
- iv. JOHN, born 1766, married 1787, ELIZABETH PULLEN, sister to NANCY;
- v. JAMES, born 1767, died before 1776;
- vi. MERRY CARTER and FANNY CARTER, twins, born 1769, MERRY married 1799, JANE BUGG TAYLOR and FANNY married, 1795, ISAAC ST. CLAIR;
- viii. MARY, born 1771, married 1794, NATHAN FUQUA;
- ix. REBECCA, born 1773, married, 1796, CHARLES CAFFREY;
- x. NANCY, born 1775, married, 1797, GEORGE REID;
- xi. JAMES II, see below;

It appears that all the children living in 1797 migrated to Tennessee, except FANNY and ISAAC ST. CLAIR, who acted as attorney for the other children in the settlement of their father's and grandfather AUGUSTINE LEFTWICH's estates. MERRY, Jr., settled in Smith County, Tennessee, and there married JANE BUGG TAYLOR and, about 2 November 1799, moved to near Lynnville, Giles

County, Tennessee. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER II has been lost sight of by the present generation of Carters, but the 1850 Census for Warren County, Kentucky, just across the Tennessee line above Nashville, lists a WILLIAM L. CARTER, aged 31, born in Tennessee, estate valued at $2200. This could be a son of WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER II, son of MERRY. Many settlers left Nashville and went over the old trail which formerly led from East Tennessee, through the Barrens in southern Kentucky, and down from Kentucky to Nashville, and settled in Tennessee.

8. JAMES CARTER II, son of WILLIAM MERRIMAN CARTER and FRANCES (LEFTWICH) CARTER, was born 28 December 1776, and moved with his brothers to Davidson County, Tennessee, where he married, 10 May 1803, SUSANNAH DICKEY. She was probably kin to the Dickeys of Giles County, Tennessee, where MERRY, Jr., settled. JAMES died in Henry County, Tennessee, 26 September 1832, and SUSAN, who had married after JAMES' death a Mr. HODGE, died there 5 September 1851. Both are buried in the Old Carter Cemetery at Routon, Tennessee, on the land first settled by JAMES. (Davidson County, Tennessee, Marriage Record Book I, 2 January 1789, to 13 December 1897; gravemarkers in Old Carter Cemetery at Routon, Henry County, Tennessee.)

JAMES had moved with his brothers from Bedford County, Virginia, to Smith County, Tennessee, to Giles County, Tennessee, and appears in the Census for 1820 in Davidson County, Tennessee. About 1822, after the treaty with the Chickasaw Indians opened the land for settlement in 1819, JAMES and his family moved from Davidson County, Tennessee, to Henry County in West Tennessee and he is found in the 1830 Census there.

JAMES' and SUSANNAH's children were:

- i. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, No. 9, below;
- ii. NANCY CARTER, born 1806, she married (1st) GEORGE W. BILES and (2nd) his cousin JAMES BILES, who, with NANCY and her children, was a pioneer settler in Washington Territory, leading the first wagon train through the Natchess pass (see Ox-Team Days on the Oregon Trail by Ezra Meeker in collaboration with Howard R. Driggs, and The Busy Life of Eighty-Five Years, Indianapolis: 1916);
- iii. ELIZABETH ("BETSEY") BURKE CARTER, born 1808, married WILLIAM PATTERSON and they had children;
- iv. SUSAN JAMES CARTER "I", who died in her teens;
- v. ROBERT FRANKLIN CARTER, born 1812, married his first cousin LUCINDA CARTER, daughter of MERRY CARTER, JR., and they lived in Henry County, Tennessee, and had children;

Carter 4-92

vi. JOHN CALVIN CARTER, born 6 November 1814, died 1 September 1896, at Manchester, Texas, a Major in the Confederate Army, married (1st) PARTHEN A. and had children; married (2nd) MARY ANN GILLIAM, widow of Dr. DINWIDDIE, and they had children;

vii. EGBERT CARTER, born circa 1820, married CATHERINE BOWDEN, lived in Dyersburg, Tennessee, and had children;

viii. ELDRIDGE, drowned at 17; and,

ALLISON, twins, born 3 March 1822, ALLISON married JANE LOUISA WEBB VEAZEY, on 15 December 1841 in Henry County, Tennessee, and he died in Dexter, Missouri, 24 January 1894, where he had made his home for many years;

x. SUSAN JAMES CARTER "II", named for older sister who died, married RODOLPHUS CATON, had children.

(Henry County, Tennessee, Marriage Records; Probate Records of Henry County, Tennessee, for Red River County, Texas, and for Dyer County, Tennessee.)

9. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, son of JAMES above, was born in Davidson County, Tennessee, 26 March 1804. The family moved to Henry County, Tennessee, about 1822. In 1830 Census of Henry County his father, JAMES, had 10 male slaves and 8 female slaves and they owned a large tract of land from Routon, Tennessee, to about 2 miles beyond Henry, Tennessee. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER married twice:

He married, first, MARY BILES, and had two daughters, SUSAN ELIZABETH, who married FRANCIS MARION "LUCK" DILLAHUNTY and moved to Ouchita County, Arkansas, and SOPHIA ANN CARTER, called SOPHIA BILES BARHAM in her father's will, who married six times, but had children only by her last, a Mr. BARHAM, and their son was named TIMOTHY. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER married, secondly, in 1831, ARABELLA SESSUMS of Humphreys County, Tennessee, born 15 November 1812, died in May of 1886.

WILLIAM LEFTWICH and ARABELLA (SESSUMS) CARTER's children were:

- i. MARY CLEMENTINE CARTER, married (1st) WASH LANGFORD, and (2nd) GEORGE VINE LASSITER, and (3rd) NIMROD BURROW;
- ii. JAMES W. CARTER, born circa 1835, married EMMA KEMP and had one son, WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, who had four children;
- iii. SARAH "SALLIE" HENRY CARTER, No. 10, below;
- iv. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, Jr., a lawyer, who married SARAH ALICE GALLION, and had three children, only one of whom had children, WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, III, whose children are DAN LEFTWICH CARTER and QUINN PALMER CARTER, both of Texas.

WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER died on 29 December 1890. His will, dated 10 September 1889, with a codicil dated 30 November 1889, was admitted to probate in Paris, Henry County, Tennessee.

The will names daughters MARY CLEMENTINE BURROW, SOPHIA BILES BARHAM, SUSAN ELIZABETH DILLAHUNTY, SARAH HENRY McALISTER; sons W. L. CARTER, Jr., and JAMES W. CARTER; grandchildren GEORGE[E] LASSATER [LASSITER] and MAY BURROW. Each of the children, except JAMES W. CARTER, was devised a piece of the Carter home property. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER having given his son JAMES "real estate of greater value than I am able to give each of the balance of my children." (Will of William Leftwich Carter.)

WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER and both his wives are buried in the Carter Cemetery at the Carter Place, about two miles south of Henry, Tennessee, while his father and others of the family are buried at the Carter Cemetery on the Old Carter Place at Routon, Tennessee.

10. SARAH HENRY CARTER (SALLIE) was born 31 July 1844, in Henry County, Tennessee, and died in Paris, Henry County, Tennessee, 11 September 1912. On 26 January 1874, she married JAMES ALEXANDER McALISTER and they had two children:

- i. MARY BELLE, who died at 13 months, and
- ii. JAMES LANIER McALISTER, No. 11, below.

SALLIE McALISTER was a graduate of Henry College and taught Latin, literature, and music in girls' schools throughout the South, after the death of her husband, JAMES, in 1890.

11. JAMES LANIER McALISTER was born at Double Bridges, Lauderdale County, Tennessee, on 22 November 1874, where his father was teaching school, at Lauderdale Academy, it is believed. (Bible of Sarah Henry Carter McAlister and personal knowledge.) He died in Clarksville, Tennessee, on 17 September 1956. On 23 March 1908, he married, in Bowling Green, Kentucky, CLEO D. JACKSON, born 4 March 1891, and who died in Paris, Tennessee, on Saturday evening, 13 June 1936. Both JIM and CLEO are buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Paris, Tennessee.

CLEO D. JACKSON was the daughter of WILLIAM HENRY JACKSON and his wife, EULISSA RENEAU, daughter of JONATHAN MULKEY RENEAU (and his wife, ELIZABETH ANN HILL), the son of JOHN RENEAU (and wife, ELIZABETH THURMAN, daughter of Commonwealth Attorney THOMAS THURMAN), the son of CHARLES RENEAU (and wife, ELIZABETH TIPTON, daughter of Captain JOSEPH TIPTON and niece of Colonel JOHN TIPTON of State of Franklin fame, in Tennessee), the son of JOHN RENEAU (and wife SUSANNAH THORN), son of LEWIS RENO, first found in Virginia in 1700 in Old Prince William County.

JAMES LANIER McALISTER graduated in law at the Southwestern Baptist University in Jackson, Tennessee, in 1898, and practiced law in Paris, Tennessee, with his uncle, WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER, Jr., until his uncle's retirement. He was also a magistrate and served, by appointment, terms as County Court Judge, for Henry County, Tennessee.

JIM and CLEO McALISTER had three children:

- i. JAMES LANIER McALISTER, Jr., Major, U.S. Army (Retired), also with the United States Department of Immigration until his retirement from that service; married LUCILLE ROBINSON in McKenzie, Tennessee;
- ii. RENEAU SESSUMS McALISTER, Lt. Colonel, U.S. Army (Retired) [also a Kentucky Colonel, "commissioned" by Governor Chandler]; married NELLE BEATON in Benton, Kentucky, one child, CLEO CARTER McALISTER BROWNE (Mrs. Robert Browne) of Florida, born 21 July 1939, Paris, Tennessee, two daughters: KAREN and CONSTANCE;
- iii. DOLLYE CLEO McALISTER, born 9 June 1920, in Paris, Tennessee, married 11 April 1943, in Charleston, Missouri, V. I. ELLIOTT and has four sons:
 - a. VIRGIL IRL ELLIOTT, Jr., born 30 August 1944;
 - b. JAMES McALISTER ELLIOTT, born 22 July 1947;
 - c. LEE RENEAU ELLIOTT, born 11 January 1950; and
 - d. WILLIAM LEFTWICH CARTER ELLIOTT, born 3 January 1954, all born in St. Louis, Missouri.

Elizabeth A Burkett was oldest daughter, second child, of Gabriel and Elmina Jones Burkett. She was born in Lawrence county, MS, and was brought to Perry county, MS (now Forrest county) as a small child when the family moved about 1842. Her first husband was George W. Carter by whom she had five children. One son, George Washington Carter died young, age two years. Elizabeth's first husband died in 1862, perhaps a Civil War casualty--not known. She then married Ezekiel S. Travis who fought in the Civil War, private, Co. G, 27 Regt. Miss. Infantry. Elizabeth and Ezekiel had five children also, including a set of twins. Both Elizabeth and Ezekiel Travis are buried in the Carter Cemetery near the Carterville Baptist Church, Carterville Road, Forrest county, Miss. There is some question on the death date of Ezekiel Travis. Although both the Bible and his tombstone list his birth as 1841, and the tombstone lists his death date as 1941, his obituary appeared in the Hattiesburg American newspaper, 25 January 1937, as having died 23 January 1937, age 101, last local Confederate veteran.

27 September 1994

Dear Paula,

I will be glad to share with you anything that I have with you.

Enclosed is a copy of the Bible of Elizabeth Burkett Carter Travis. She was born 26 June 1836, Lawrence co. MS, oldest daughter of Gabriel Burkett and Elmina Jones Burkett. She married first George Uriah Carter 9 June 1853 (Bible record). They had at least four children. He died 30 July 1862 (Bible record). I presume he was in War Between The States, but I have not traced his service record. Elizabeth married Ezekiel Stafford Travis c. 1866 and had five more children by him. Zeke Travis was a Confederate veteran, and many people in Hattiesburg remember him as he died in 1933. Elizabeth died in her sleep 28 May 1908; she was blind at the time of her death. She and Ezekiel are buried in the Carter cem., Cartersville, MS. I do not know where George U. Carter is buried.

In Elizabeth Burkett Carter Travis is the notation: William Carter was born the 10 day of September 1783 A.D. Mary Evans was born the 8 (?) of November 1793 A.D. Under this notation is a repeat of Mary Evans, etc. scratched out. I don't know if this is any help to you. The Bible is in the possession of Hilda Bramlett, 126 West Cherry St., Petal, MS (your neighbor almost!!). Last correspondence with her was in 1984. The Bible was fragile then.

Contact her right away. I just read a transcript that I made of the original record, and for some reason I am missing a page of the original zeroxed pages. It is the page of deaths and the following notations were on that page:

Mary Carter the wife of William Carter deceist (sic) on the 21st of May A.D. 1852 (She should be on the 1850 Perry co. census, probably in some offspring's household).

William Carter deceast (sic) on the 13 day of October A.D. 1859. (He should be on the 1850 census also.)

I'll include a copy of my transcript also. I am really upset that I can't find a copy of that original page. If you contact Hilda and she lets you zerox the Bible, please send me a copy of the Death page. Thanks. Hope this has been of some help to you. I commend you for being so careful in citing your sources. I hope to write a book on the Burkett family some day!

I will be in Hattiesburg on Oct. 6 for about ten days. I can be reached at my mother's apt. at Wesley Manor, Audrey Burkett, phone 264 2030.

Yours,

Mary Jane

President Carter's family history, since the first arrived in America 350 years ago, is alive with dramatic, action filled Sagas.

An early Carter shot a man over a dispute, over ownership of a slave and stood trial for murder.

A direct ancestor was slain in a drunken brawl, and tragically, 30 years later his son met the same fate in a deadly quarrel.

An indian fighting colonist ancestor, rebelled against the King of England 100 years before the American Revolutionary War and it almost cost him his life.

Another forefather, outraged over unreasonable land taxes, banded with other Colonists in a revolt against the King, forcing taxes to be lowered.

The Carter family history begins in England, in the early 1600's when Thomas Carter, son of John Carter, a merchant, in Christ Church, decided to start a new life in the new world.

Here, beginning with Thomas, are capsules of the lives of Jimmy Carter's direct Ancestors:

Thomas Carter, Sr., (1610-1669)

Thomas Carter was an indentured servant for appx. 5 years to pay for his passage to the Colonies. He arrived in Virginia in 1635 at the age of 25.

After Thomas worked off his debt and became a free man, he sought his fortune in the West Indies---only to lose his freedom again. He showed up in London in 1656 with an amazing story. He said he had been captured by spaniards and kept prisoner for 21 months before he escaped in a Cutch ship.

Thomas returned to the Isle of Wight Co., VA., before 1659 and became a man of modest wealth and stature. Thomas Carter, Sr., is known to have had one son, Thomas, Jr.

Thomas Carter, Jr., was a firebrand. In 1676 Thomas joined Bacon's Rebellion. It was a frontier force led by Nathaniel Bacon which battled the indians in a determined effort to expand the Colonies, an act the King and Governor opposed.

Bacon and his followers are considered 'Torchbearers of the American Revolution' since they were striving for more democracy and self determination.

When Bacon died a year later, the Rebellion quickly ended and Thomas was in hot water.

Carter 4-103

Because of his involvement, he was in danger of being branded a Traitor, have his property confiscated and being executed. Thomas signed a 'Pledge of Allegiance' and escaped the vengeance of Gov. Wm. Berkeley.

Thomas gained wealth and prominence in 1673 when he married Magpalen Moore, daughter of George Moore, the rich and politically powerful Justice of the Court of the Isle of Wight co., Va. As a wedding present to his new son-in-law, Moore deeded Thomas 400-acres of land.

Moore Carter (1680-1741), a staunch believer in the democratic principles that formed the declaration of Independence 40 years later, revolted against the King of England. It happened in 1735 when he became embroiled in a dramatic Tax protest against King George II after moving from Virginia to North Carolina.

Moore was a man of means for his day, and educated Plantation owner with several hundred acres in Bertie Co., NC., four slaves named Sam, Moll, Judy and Isabel.

Moore and his wife had appx. nine children that included:

- I. Isaac Carter (1730-1790) of Bertie Co. NC sold at least 10,000 lbs. local currency, to the Rev. Army.
- II. Kindred Carter (1750-1800) didn't fight in the Rev. War. Some Historians believe that Kindred was a member of the Quakers, an extremely active group in NC at that time. Kindred's life as a successful farmer took a dramatic turn in the late 1780's. A severe depression gripped NC and Kindred was forced to leave his 640 acre farm. Even so, it took real courage, for Kindred to turn his back on the only home he had ever known and journey to eastern Georgia where the Indians were not yet subdued and the land was not developed. Among Kindred's children was a son James, the President Carter's fourth generation great Grandfather.
 - A. James Carter (1773-1785) was the first of Pres. Carter's direct ancestors to be a Baptist. James won two tracts of 202½ and 409 acres of land in the land lottery. He lived on his 500 acre Plantation in McDuffie Co. Ga., before moving to Talbot Co. Ga. James and his wife had nine children, including Wiley the President's G-G-Grandfather.
 - I. Wiley Carter, (1798-1864) was forced to settle a dispute with a gun and he ended up on trial for murder. The Jury found him not guilty. His 12 children included Littleberry Walker Carter.
 - A. Walker Carter (1832-1873) fought in the Civil War. In 1873 Walker was knifed to death in a drunken-brawl by his business partner. Among his four children included Wm. Carter.
 1. Wm. Carter (1858-1903) was senselessly murdered during a business dispute. In 1904, Williams's wife Nina moved her family to Plains, Ga., the first Carters to live there. They had James Earl Carter.
 - (a.) James Earl Carter (1894-1953) President Carter's father, Marr. 1923 to Lillian Gordy, dau of Jim Jack Gordy, a big politician. James Earl died of cancer.

- III. Daughter who married Bryan O'Quin.
- IV. Jacob Carter.
- V. Kindred Carter - Line of Pres. Jimmy Carter.
- VI. Isaac Carter.
- VII. Moore Carter.
- VIII. Katherine Carter
- IX. Jane Carter.
- X. Joseph Carter, died Bertie Co. NC 1729.
- XI. Matthew Carter, B_____ in NC or Va. Died in SC., time and place unknown. He married his cousin, Patience O'Quinn. Patience made her will in Edgefield Co. SC. 4 Feb 1823, recorded 19 Aug 1823. There were two Patience Carters' in Edgefield Co. SC. The second must have been an unmarried daughter.

State of Mississippi

In Chancery Court

Jackson County

March Term 1908.

Mathew L. Carter

vs

Heirs of Joseph Ely et al

To the Honorable Chancery Court of said County:

Complainant Mathew Carter a Citizen of said County complains of the unknown heirs of Joseph Ely and of Magdaline Ely, whose whereabouts are to the complainant unknown after diligent inquiry, and for cause of complainant this complainant respectfully shows that he is the rightful owner of the following lands in said County to-wit: ~~The SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 3 Township 6 S of Range 7 W~~ and derives his title thereto as follows:

1st. United States to the State of Mississippi by Act of Congress September 28 1850, selection thereunder by the State and Act of confirmation approved March 3rd 1905 as to all said land except the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 10.

2nd. The SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 10 was located by J.B. Bodreau as assignee under Surveyor Generals Warrant on July 4, 1851, as shown by tract book of original Government entries.

3rd. The Tract Book of original purchasers from the State shows that the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 3 was sold and patented by the State to Sumrall and Benson August 19th 1857.

4th. Said tract Book also shows that the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 10 was sold and patented by the State to Joseph Ely on January 10, 1860.

5th. The said John B. Bodreau, being the same person as the said J.B. Bodreau conveyed to Joseph Ely the said SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 10 by his deed of date December 15, 1851 which is of record in Book 3 at page 80 of the records of deeds of said County to which reference will be craved is this allegation is denied.

6th. The said Sumrall & Benson sold and conveyed to the said Joseph Ely the said SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 3, by their joint deed of date the 8th day of April 1856 and which deed is now of record in Book 3 at page 32 and 33 of the records of deeds of said County and reference to same will be craved on final hearing if this allegation is denied.

7th. This link in the chain of title involves the inheritance of said land from said Joseph Ely by Magdaline Ely and her parol gift of same to Antoine Ely and matters wherein relief is prayed as against the heirs of said Joseph and Magdaline hereafter more fully set forth.

8th. The said Antoine Ely sold and conveyed said NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 10 to Jas. P. Broadus by deed of date November 2nd, 1907 and now of record in Book 33 at page 202 of the records of deeds of said County.

9th. Said Jas. P. Broadus sold and conveyed said NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section to this complainant by his deed of date Nov. 2, 1907 and which deed is of record in Book 33 at page 203 of the records of deeds of said County.

10th. The said Antoine Ely joined by other parties who had set up some claim to same under contract with said Antoine Ely sold and conveyed to this complainant the said SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 3 by this deed of date the 9th day of November 1907 and now of record in Book 33 at page 204 of the records of said County.

11th. The said Antoine Ely sold and conveyed to this complainant the said SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said Section 10 by his deed of date the 2nd. day of November 1907 which deed is now of record in Book 33 at page 203 of the records of deeds of said County.

But complainant now shows to the Court that since the question of the heirship of the said Magdaline Ely, the parol gift to said Antoine Ely and his subsequent long possession and claim of ownership under such gift are matters not of record his title is thus clouded and insecure and in need of quieting in accordance with the statutory jurisdiction of this Honorable Court in such matters.

And complainant alleges upon information and belief that the said Joseph Ely, the original patentee and owner of said land, was a bachelor and at the time of his death, which occurred about December 1864 had never married and had no children. That of his two sisters and one brother the brother and one sister had died with out lawful issue and one sister, Magdaline Ely, survived. That said Magdaline took possession of said lands together with said Antoine Ely, who was the illegitimate son of said deceased brother of said Joseph. That prior to her death she delivered all said lands and estate into the possession of said Antoine Ely, as a gift by parol and died intestate about the year 1879. That thereafter the said Antoine continued to hold possession of said land and so continued in the open, notorious and continuous possession of said lands under claim of exclusive ownership for more than 10 years, cultivating a part, cutting timber from same for market and for making charcoal and exercised complete control of same and used same as owner during said period of 10 years without interruption.

And complainant further shows that after diligent inquiry complainant has been unable to learn and does not know who are the lawful heirs of the said Joseph Ely nor of the said Magdaline Ely and that said heirs are to him unknown, that no one is holding possession of said property adverse to this complainant and that he is without remedy for quieting his rightful title so acquired and held as aforesaid as against unknown heirs of said parties, who alone might contest his title, except in a Court of Equity where alone such conditions are relieveable.

The premises considered complainant prays that publication be made to the unknown heirs of Joseph Ely deceased, and of Magdaline Ely deceased, as provided by the Statutes in such cases and that on a final hearing of this bill that a decree be awarded forever quieting and confirming complainants title to said land as against all the heirs at law of the said Joseph deceased and of the said Magdaline Ely deceased and for such other or further relief in the premises as may be equitable. And as in duty bound complainants will ever pray &c.

I. JACOB CARTER (1758-1857)

Jacob Carter was born in 1758 in New Jersey. The names of his parents and the exact location of his birth have not yet been discovered. According to Jacob Carter's application for a Revolutionary War pension, he was living on the fork of the Monongahela River and the Cheat River in Pennsylvania, when he was drafted in 1774 to defend the state against hostile Indians.

In 1777 Jacob moved to Surry County, North Carolina, and volunteered to fight under the command of Captain Sallathiel Martin. He served in the capacity of lieutenant for three years. In July 1780, he volunteered to serve in the company of a Col. Isaacs. During this time he was engaged in many of the important Revolutionary battles which occurred in North Carolina and in South Carolina. Following the battle of King's Mountain he was captured by the Tories who were commanded by a Col. Right. He took parole and returned home. Shortly afterwards, he substituted for one Peter Sally under the command of a Col. Smith and a Captain Wright. He was verbally discharged shortly after the Guilford Courthouse incident.

Following this lengthy period of service, Jacob Carter moved to Georgia, where he is thought to have married his wife Charity_____. Jacob lived in the counties of Clarke, and Jackson and probably also in Morgan county. He also owned land in Jasper County. On September 16, 1811, while in Morgan County he applied for a passport to travel through Creek Indian Territory to the new frontier.

Jacob and Charity settled in Lawrence County, Mississippi, and remained there just prior to 1820 when they moved to Marion County. On May 13, 1820, the Ebenezer Baptist Church was established with Jacob and Charity being charter members.

On October 5, 1835, Jacob applied for a Revolutionary War pension and it was denied due to lack of corroboration. An effort is now being made to prove that Jacob was indeed a Revolutionary soldier.

Jacob remained in Marion County until when on February 8, 1844, he sold his land to Thomas Allen and moved into the home of his son Marcus Elam Carter who was then residing in Covington County. It is probable that it was in 1844 that Charity died and this motivated Jacob to sell out and move in with his son.

Jacob lived with his son Marcus Elam until he died on January 24, 1857, at the approximate age of ninety-nine. He left a modest will with Marcus Elam as executor of his estate. Jacob was buried in the Carter family cemetery which is located about one mile North of the Marion-Jefferson Davis (formerly Covington) County lines.

A. Highly Carter married Noel Francis Roberts on March 10, 1808, in Clarke County Georgia. On the 1820 census record the Roberts family were found to be residing in Lawrence County, Mississippi. At that time they had two sons under the age of ten. At the moment nothing else is known of this family.

E. Marcus Elam Carter (1794-1870)

Issue of Samuel Lane &
Matilda Carter

Marcus Elam Carter was born in Georgia, most probably in Clarke County. In 1811, he along with two of his sisters, Matilda and Serena, and his brother, William Wilkins, moved with their parents, Jacob (1758-1857) and Charity Carter, to Lawrence County, Mississippi.

On January 6, 1815, Marcus joined the 13th Regiment (Nixon's) of the Mississippi Territorial Militia. Marcus served as Corporal until he was discharged February 5, 1815, at the Marion County Courthouse.

On August 13, 1816, Jacob Carter sent his son Marcus back to Jasper County, Georgia, to sell some of his remaining property. During his stay in Georgia, Marcus married Lydia E. Williams (1800-1880), the daughter of Nathan and Lucy Echols Williams, on December 22, 1816, in Jasper County. Nathan Williams lived in Oglethorpe, Wilkes, Greene, Jasper, and Butts counties during his lifetime.

By 1820, Marcus, along with his new wife, Lydia Williams Carter had returned to Lawrence County, Mississippi. Shortly thereafter Marcus moved to Marion County, Mississippi, where he served as a Justice of the Peace from 1825-1829.

By the early 1820's Marcus was already busy with a side-line business which would later become a profitable venture for him. Marcus bought and sold numerous tracts of land for profit throughout Marion, Covington, and Lawrence Counties.

Just prior to 1830 Marcus moved to Covington County where he would remain for the remainder of his life. He died in early 1870.

"The Gateway of Life"
*"We say goodbye! but not forevermore;
The call but summons to yon further shore.*

*And when we too embark,
It is not for the dark of unknown seas, but for the welcome meeting with loved ones gone before, who wait our greeting.*

Living in Hope and Faith, we fear not Death; 'tis but the Gate of Life."

MISS MARY RUBY CARTER

STATE HEALTH CONTEST WON BY WADE 4-H GIRL

Secures Rating of 98 Per cent at Starkville 4-H Congress.

Mary Ruby Carter, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carter, won first place in the contest at Starkville.

Miss Carter has been active in 4-H club work in Jackson county for several years, has won many prizes at the Jackson county fair and is a most talented young lady.

Miss Carter will probably be one of the 48 4-H club girls, one from each state, who are to be given free educational trips to Chicago this Fall and all expenses paid for week's stay at the 14th National Club Congress as championship prizes in the National Girls' Record contest.

Every bona-fide 4-H Club girl in Jackson County and the state who regularly enrolled in home economic projects may compete. In addition to the free trip given state champions a handsome gold medal awarded to county winners, and a grand climax to the contest the highest ranking state champion presented a $400 cash college scholarship by Montgomery Ward, sponsoring the contest for the thirteenth year.

Contestants for county honors are required to submit a certified record of their projects showing the number, value, prizes and honors won, and a statement on the value of the training received. Girls competing for the $400 scholarship are required to submit in addition their original records, a photo and a statement of their club experience and its value to themselves, their homes and communities.

County, state and national club leaders and rural and educational organizations are cooperating with the National Committee on Boys and Girls' Club Work, which originated the contest, in conducting it as an incentive to the 4-H program.

SOME NORTH CAROLINIANS IN FLORIDA, 1790'S

Contributed by Mrs. L. W. Norsworthy, Box 636, Neptune Beach, Florida, who writes: "In looking through a copy of Catholic baptisms, Parish of St. Augustine, in Florida, for the years 1784 to 1792, I found five references to families from "Carolina del Norte." There were 521 entries in all. These are the original spellings. Frequently both English and Spanish names were misspelled, probably due to the Irish priests resorting to phonetic spelling."

Entry No. 495: Thomas Guillermo Manuel Anderson, born November 2, 1791, baptized January 22, 1792. Son of Guillermo Anderson and Maria Clarke, both of Carolina del Norte. Sponsors: Manuel Solana and Maria Guetrou, both of St. Augustine. Priest: Thomas Hassett.

Entry No. 487: Pedro Guellermo Macho, born Nov. 7, 1791, baptized Dec. 18. Son of Bernardo Macho, Alemania, and Matilda Royal, Carolina del Norte. Sponsors: Pedro Cosifachi and Ines Cavedo, both of St. Aug. Priest: Hassett.

Entry No. 534: Isabel Carter, about 1 year 6 months old, bapt. June 20, 1799. Daughter of Isaac Carter, native of Virginia, son of Thomas Carter and Maria Chambers; and Isabel Weathers, native of Carolina del Norte, daughter of Samuel Weathers and Martha Derham (Durham?). Sponsors: Nicholas Gomez of St. Augustine. Priest: Miguel O'Reilly.

Entry No. 552: Isabel Maria Yames (Ames?), adult, 23 years old, native of Carolina del Sur, bapt. under condition on June 30, 1799. Daughter of Juan Yames, native of Ireland, son of unknown parents; and Sarah O'Neil, native of Carolina del Norte, daughter of Juan O'Neil and Sara Hunter. Sponsors: Antonio Mestre (Masters) and Catalina Nichols of St. Augustine. Priest: Miguel Crosby.

Entry No. 555: Roberto Gilbert, adult about 23 years old, native of Carolina del Norte. Bapt. and given the same name that he bore before, Roberto, on July 12, 1799. Son of Roberto Gilbert and Caridad White, both natives of Carolina del Sur. Sponsors: Dr. Thomas Travers, M. D., San Augustin.

The Saga of Isaac Carter

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This series of histories of the founding families of Washington Parish has been compiled through the efforts of Oushola Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.)

CARTER

Isaac Carter, a Revolutionary Soldier, was born in North Carolina in 1764. He was the son of Virginia-born parents. Isaac was the only son of the third wife who died at his birth. She was only 15 at the time of Isaac's birth and died at that time. It is said that her name was Shirley. His father remarried and had a son Thomas by his fourth wife, who also died at childbirth. Both boys ran away from the fifth wife whom both hated, only Thomas' escape was after the war. He was much younger than Isaac.

Isaac started as a "messenger" for a Private who stayed home. Then at 13 years of age he became a paid substitute, and an enlisted soldier at 17 years of age, 1778.

They came

West

In the course of duty, his troop was sent into the Orangeburg District of South Carolina, where he met the William Young family which emigrated from Holland in 1735, also the Lewis Lindens. He married Mary Ann (Nancy) Young when he was 15 and she 14 years of age. Their first child, William Young Carter, was born when Isaac was 16 years of age.

At the close of the war, Isaac received his grant of land in Mississippi—on Rocky Creek in Pike County—now Chatawa. He built a two-story home, with a wide hall and an attic. There were double stairs to the landing where an octagonal alcove was built of glass windows. He could oversee his fields—including acres and acres of oats and feeds for his animals. A saying arose "there were as many of so and so as Carter had oats".

Between the twin sets of stairs was a tiled portion with a marble punch bowl of large size and an alcove on each side for the pottery mugs. No guest arrived without "greetings."

Isaac was a notary public—on the county council—promoted reforestation—promoted rotation of crops—supervised new roads—and a grammar school for all.

He, his wife, infant and two free Negroes (he had no slaves) are buried below the house by the creek.

Isaac Carter: born in Cumberland County, North Carolina March 24, 1764. Died at Chatawa, Miss. March 24, 1824. Wife Nancy Young—born 1765. They married in 1780 in South Carolina and had 11 children, eight boys and three girls: William, Henry, John, Nancy, Polly, Allen, Bird, Derrell, Harvel, Israel and Elizabeth.

Isaac enlisted at age 13 in Col. Sylvanus Hogan's Regiment. He fought in the Battle at Bacon's Bridge, S.C., Brandywine, Monmouth, Germantown, Lockheart - Folly. He was wounded while in service. His final discharge was given at Wilmington, N.C.

Dear Dee "I'm digging, I'm digging - almost 'talked' to ole Isaac himself Sunday while kicking gravel off his grave. Evidently
There were several burials & became known as the "Carter" Cemetery. But no known markers have been found.
My Cousin & I went Sunday & got permission from Ralph Hays, who runs
"Sunshine Mountain" a home for retarded people.
He was a Baptist preacher until his wife became unable to care for herself after an accident. Chatawa has its own P.O. as there is a Catholic settlement
nearly used to be a school.
Sold your horses now &
I'll Xerox some & photograph
K.O. some for you.

I wrote Kathryn to see if she could find ISAAC's BURIAL place & then I'll be the last I have heard from her.

Dear Kathryn,

In reading from a Letter To Mary Page from Hansford Simmons P.O. Box 574 McComb Miss. 39648 dated Nov. 22 1967. and I quote.

"Yesterday I spent most of the day around Osyka and Chatwa . I went to the Old N.O. Allmand home, and talked with the daughter, Hazel Allmand Varnado Hardin. She knew little about the Carters, except that they lived on a hill in front of her home. She knew none of their names. The old home had long since been torn down, that is, the Carter home. Right around the curve from the old Allmand home is the Carters Hill where the gravel pit had been. They said one of the Carters built the Allmand home but did not know his first name.

Fred Hardin, her husband took me down in the pasture about 200 yards from the home, and showed me what was left of what must have been the "Carter graveyard". He said there were at least two graves there and maybe 3. At one time there were brick vaults up over the graves but the brick had been removed. They said there had never been any markers and no indentifying marks as to who had been buried there. I had talked over the phone with Mrs. I.F. Carter out from Osyka, but she seemed to know little about the Carter family and referred to her sister-in-law, Mary in Houston who married Johnny COLE . And you wrote me that Johnny told you about this old Carter Cem. "

Would you go out there and dig up those old graves and see if Isaac is buried in one of them?

You probably already know about this but just trying to be of help.

Doc

Dear Mrs. Strickland:

In your latest book "who married whom", I would like to point out several errors in Carter families.

- ✓(1) The Abner Alex Carter 1846 - son of Eliz. ~~Patt~~ & William Carter. His name was Abner Uriah and his first wife was Catherine McGilvary in 1871. His 2nd wife was Mally Coleman. Proof 1880 U.S. Census and his son George Carter who lives on Corinth Rd in Perry Co.
- ✓(2) Under the Abner Carter 1802 family Alexander 1860 should not be there as Abner died in 1846.
- ✓(3) The Isaac E. (R.S) N.C. 1756 should be Isaac Daniel Carter. (Proof inclosed)
- ✓(4) The Isaac ~~Jefferson~~ Carter 1815 who married Sarah Myers. I have an idea that Patricia Edwards started that. His middle initial was E. and it stood for "Ervin". Proof - Any Masonic book in public library - he was a member of State Legislature for (3) terms after Civil war and his grave is marked Isaac Ervin put there by granddaughter Candis Batson. Isaac Ervin was the first son of William Carter & Mary Evans
- ✓(5) Jefferson Davis Carter 1860 son of Geo. Uriah & Eliz. Burkett, married Cora Anderson. They are buried here in A.B. Chappell Cem. His daughter Roberta (Bertie) (M) J. D. O'Neal

(6) Daniel M. Carter's son born 1862 ^{Carter 4-217} was Daniel D. not Daniel B. and his wife was Sabre Virgin Bradford. Proof - H'burg City directory 1935 & 1944. Daniel D. had son Daniel B.

✓ (7) In the Isaac Jefferson Ervin Carter family, there were only (10) children. The Elizabeth Carter 1848 who (n) Nathorne & Courtney should not be there. Proof Isaac died 1875.

✓ (8) In the William Carter & Eliz. Pitts family I would like to know where the Isaac Jefferson came from. He left for TX. in late 60's, was on only on 1850 & 1860 census as Isaac. I found him on Madison Co. TX. 1900 only as Isaac Carter.

✓ (9) Concerning ⁽¹⁸²²⁾ Mary & Rueben in family of William & Eliz. Pitts Carter. Mary L. & Rueben are on 1860 Jasper Co. Census as son and wife of Abner C. Carter. On 1870 they are living in Perry Co. Mary L. as ^(census) head of household. On 1880 Census Mary L. is shown as wife of W^m Carter & Rueben as step son. Rueben later married Eugenia McDonald. (No children).

✓ (10) Isaac Ervin & Sarah Myers Carter had one son named Isaac T. (n) Mary E. When Isaac died 1906 his widow Mary E. married Joseph McCardle. She is buried under that name by her 1st husband Isaac T.

William David - son of Isaac E. and ~~Elizabeth~~ his wife Eran Lavenia Burkett moved to Jones Co. shortly after the birth of my mother Maude Ethyl Carter in 1881

Herbert R. Williams

Dec. 3-1985

Dear Mrs. Strickland!

I have put this down as I read it from Tape. I know some of the dates don't give. Malcolm for instance, the actual dates on him came from a library book. As far as Bobbie R. - I checked that twice and she is listed as wife. So he must have been married twice. I am acquainted with Lucy, the last one of Andrew's family. They lived about (5) mi. south of Hattiesburg in Richburg Community. I called her once and she didn't seem to know very much. If you care to check her tel. no. 268-6564.

I am also inclosing the Andrew D. Carter + Margaret Gillis family. I never did pursue this since there was so much more that I wanted to do. I'm pretty sure that if you would contact Mr. J. A. P. Carter of McLaurin Ms. he would fill you in on his family.

I talked to his wife once and she told me that he knew quite a bit of family history. His Tel. No. 584-7957. J.A.P. was board of supervisor for Forrest Co. for quite a few years. I believe you could write him McLaurin Ms.

Since you have been doing this work for quite a while I know you must have looked at the Byrd family book. This book includes quite a few families such as Batson Draughn. If you have any trouble with who married whom in Draughn family of Perry Co. I would recommend that you write to Mrs. Annie Pearl ~~Dr~~ Jefferson. She is the daughter of Rufus Draughn 1881 and Mary Elizabeth Carter 1886. Her address is Route 16 Box 850 Hattiesburg Ms. 39401.

My grandfather William David Carter moved to Jones Co. shortly after my mother was born in 1881. My fathers people from Choctaw Co. Ala. & Wayne Co. Ms. In fact he was 15 yrs old when they moved to Perry Co. Relatives in Wayne - Dgess, Busby, McIlwain & others.

If you have any trouble finishing up the next Perry Co. Book, I might could fill you in on the Chappells, Barketts, Batsons, Baylis, Courtney's. etc, & of course the Carters.

Before I close I would like to say that all of your books have been a great help to me and my daughter in tracing our family history. The daughter by the way is Bobbie Nell Henriques of Metairie La. I believe she has all of your books in her library except the last which she had you to mail to me. We are both looking forward to your Wayne + Jones Co. books.

Very best wishes to you and your husband,

Sincerely,
Herbert R. Williams

Our Father which art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Jim what we know about the Carter family is Ebenezer & Martha Carter are on the 1840 Fed. Census, early 1840's State Census and about 1937 - 1944 County Tax Rolls.

In 1853v they had a child born here in Tex. The later Fed. Census shows they were both born in N.C.

Ebenezer A. Carter ca. 1815

Martha E. ? ca 1817

children:

M Hampton W. Carter ca 1836

F Mary Frances Carter Dec. 27, 1840

F L. Ellen Carter ca 1844

M D. Carter ca 1846

M James Carter ca 1849

There were a number of Carter's in Choctaw Co. and were probably kin to Ebenezer Carter. This is about all we know about them in MS. We would appreciate any help you can give us.

There is probably an argument as to which children belonged to each of the Thomas Carters, but Celia Ann had nine sons.

I met a woman whose family has several dishes of Celia Ann McDonald Carter.

Dear Stricklands,

I have a habit of repeating copies of things I have copied before. This is how this paper came about. So rather than throw it away I will just let you look at it. My line that I traced back from the Stricklands starts with the red mark. This is from the Magna Charta by Wurts.

I am inclosing the information on the Jason Niles Diary. It is from my good friend Katherine Black, 6214 Glencoe, Houston, Tx. 77087. She has a lot of friends in Ms. on her husband's Black side. She ordered the Nile film and let me read it. I only read a little. It takes a lot of time. He tells a lot of things about people.

I turned the Query in. It will come out in our next Quarterly. Have you ever traced the Stenson family?

I had a letter from Mrs. Edwards. When I first saw the name, I started to throw it in the garbage. I get so many letters from that Mrs. Edwards that does all that phoney Genealogy.

The Township "ap is great. I will have to start digging on the Merritt line again. They are just like a stone wall. Some of the modern day ones are just the same. They are afraid to have their family in a book with their relatives. There must have been a great disaster in the background that has come down until today in the form of fear of identify. I have some material that indicates some were burned at the stakes in England over their religious belief.

Thanks for the Solomon Strickland Deed of Gift. He signed his name with a Latin sign. Do you have Solomons' marriage Bond to Amy Pace? He signed differently. I will send you a copy if you do not have it.

I also have the Henry County, Solomon of 1843. I have the will of Huldad A, Strickland of Henry County, Ga. Let me know if you need either of these.

I sent a copy of Deed to Mary's children to a descendant of the William Carter, Jr. in the Deed. But I have not heard from her. She may be away on vacation. He stopped in Ms. where he married Lovey Simmons 17 Jan. 1823 in Lawrence Co., Ms. Book 5, p. 170. Once you gave me Mr. Hampfords Simmons name and I wrote to him; but he did not know about William Carter. Then about three years ago Helen Polk Stachoviak wrote me to compare Carters and we found that we are kin. She gave some information and I wrote for the rest. William Carter was born 13 May 1799, Jackson County, Ga. M. 18th Jan. 1823, d. about 1837 in Indian War. Probate in Lawrence Co., Ms. You know about Redmond, Mary, (not mentioned) and Unity who married the Vardeman.

Thanks a million,

Lily Carter Thurman

Dear Ms. Strickland,

Enclosed herewith are copies of three Miss. family genealogies that I recently worked on, namely Lewis, Futch, and Landrum.

The Futch family has been "knowingly" mishandled. Attached is a copy of the Onesimus Futch DAR Patriot application taken from the Texas D.A.R. Patriot Index showing John as son and Celety as dau. The women making these applications knew this to be incorrect as one sent me the copy of the Greene Co. MS lawsuit.

I have not found the father of Jordon Lewis, but I believe that he was Isaac Lewis who died in Georgia with Stephen nearby. Isaac Lewis was the son of John Lewis who died in 1765 in Chowan Co. NC.

I descend from Thomas Carter and Willis Holder who both received early Land Grants on the Pascagoula, Jackson Co. MS. His granddaughter was the G-dau of Isaac Carter of Perry Co. MS.

This Thomas Carter was not Thomas Carter, the son of Matthew Carter. In the 1820 Jackson Co. MS census, you will find Thomas with two sons of previous marriage and a young (2nd) wife with a new dau who is Nancy Winn Carter. Thomas Carter's wife was Susannah Winn the dau of Robert Winn, Rev. soldier. Robert Winn had two sons in Legislature. Nancy Winn Carter Wilson, her child, Susannah and Thomas are buried in the New Zion Baptist Church Cem., Copiah, MS. located near Crystal Springs.

Thomas Carter moved to Hinds Co. MS and in the 1830 MS census of Hinds Co., you will find a number of Carters with Thomas, and the most of them appear to have been his children as he had a very large family by his first wife (nine sons).

This Thomas Carter, b ca 1763, was the son of Theodrick Carter and Judith Cunningham, the dau of Alexander Cunningham. In addition to Thomas Theodrick Carter had a son Capt. Alexander Carter. This Alexander had a son Alexander who moved to MS.

Thomas Carter also had a son named Alexander and in 1831 Thomas posted the marriage bond for son Thomas to marry Dorcas Pryor Taylor. This bond is on file in the Raymond, Hinds Co. Courthouse. This line of Carters started with Gyles (Giles) of Berkley Plantation, VA.

I also descend from Thomas Carter thru Matthew Carter and his son Isaac. Matthew Carter married his cousin Patience O'Quinn. Matthew died in SC, time and place unknown. Patience Carter his wife, made her will in SC.

All of Matthew Carter's sons were loyalist during the last two years of the war, except son Matthew who served with Marion in SC during the war.

I cannot visualize any family lines being botched as the "Thomas Carters" of MS.

During my reaearch of the four principal Carter lines, I traveled over 40,000 miles. Twice I visited the Courthouse of Jackson Co. MS, to check on Willis Holder only to be told that all records had been burned. I would like to know when he sold out and moved to Jasper Co. MS. He married Elizabeth Sims, I think, the dau of John Sims of Wilkinson Co. MS.

Do you have a better copy of the "Futch" Greene Co. MS, lawsuit?

Sincerely,

SCHOOL DAYS — A group of school children who lived in the Brewton area about the turn of the century are pictured in front of their log school in this photo in possession of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carter. The arrow identifies Melissa Jane Holden Carter, whose family lived in the area.

"As long as I can [wiggle my thumb] I can pray for people," says Karen Carter, who credits her faith, among other things, for her longevity. Carter, who has led a nomadic life, says she has never cut her hair, but trims it using an old Indian method of burning the ends. Despite her age, three marriages and a circle of loving friends, Carter remains fiercely independent. At far right, a photograph of Carter as a teen-ager in 1904.

A Feisty Karen Carter Has Few Regrets:
'I Have Lived to Be a Happy, Old Woman'

By MICHAEL QUINTANILLA
TIMES STAFF WRITER

Karen Martishie Hancock Carter holds a Bible opened to the 91st Psalm, her favorite. Stuffed between its tissue-thin pages—which she has underlined, highlighted and noted like a used textbook—are letters from those seeking her divine intervention.

The prayer warrior gets busy.

Carter prays for a Pasadena couple trying to have a baby; for an East Los Angeles woman whose son, a gang member, is doing time in prison; for a 40-year-old Burbank man dying of AIDS.

Eyes closed, her cupped palms facing heavenward, Carter ends the prayers by thanking her creator for the simple things in her life.

For being able to hear the clock tick. For having enough strength to get out of her wheelchair and onto crutches.

For the mulberry tree she sees first thing every morning.

"For giving me another day of life, in this, my 106th year of living. It's so good to be alive."

She opens her eyes and places the Bible on an aluminum tray that holds a roll of toilet paper, a whistle and a flashlight—an emergency kit of sorts always within arm's reach.

"There aren't too many things I can do these days," Carter says, referring to the infirmities of aging—broken hips, failing eyesight, lapsing memory and a heart condition, the latter which she treats nightly with her own remedy: two teaspoons of Jim Beam in a half-glass of water.

"[But] as long as I can do this," she says, wiggling her thumb, "I can pray for people."

And so she does every day from a two-room travel trailer in Sylmar where she has lived for 20 years.

And even though she lives alone, she says she really isn't; sometimes she awakens in the middle of the night and sees the faces of angels—young, smooth, round faces—hovering on the wall above her window.

"In my mind they look like angels," she says. "In my heart, I know they are."

Born in Missouri in 1886, Carter's at times nomadic life has led her to take up residence in more than half the United States. At the age of two weeks, her family left Missouri in an oxen-pulled covered wagon for Oklahoma, where her father farmed a homestead.

"My first schooling was in a little log cabin schoolhouse," she says. "I was about 5 years old when I started school. I used to walk five miles to that school and there was a spring right next to it right by a great big acorn tree."

Closing her eyes, spreading her arms in front and waving them slowly, she is lost momentarily in another place and time: "It was so beautiful."

"I like to bring things to my memory. I'm glad that I can relive certain moments." She opens her eyes. "But you know what, I can't for the life of me remember what our desks looked like. I have tried so many times. I wish I could remember that."

She never finished the fourth grade, Carter says, because she "was put out to work." The family had moved to Colorado and by age 9, she was cleaning railroad bunkhouses and cooking.

"I worked for my boarding and clothes," she remembers. "I washed dishes and scrubbed floors for as many as 20 men in one bunkhouse. . . . I learned many wonderful things from them."

Among the lessons: baking bread, pies and cakes; vegetable gardening, and caring for horses. Later, Carter worked as a housekeeper and, while still a child herself, helped raise other people's children.

"I've had an active life," she says. "There wasn't anything I couldn't do. I remember when my first husband, Lee Woods, and I first had electricity and water in the house. But we had no sewage system, so I got me a shovel and dug us a ditch almost as big as this trailer and put a top on it."

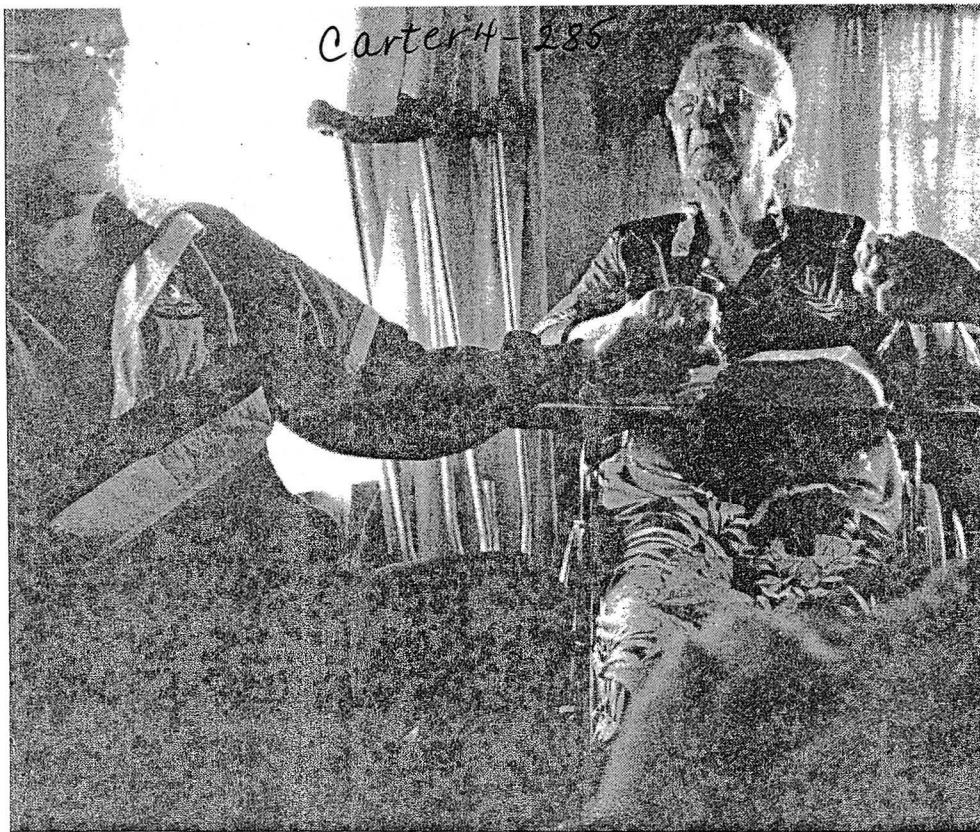

At age 17, she married Woods. Carter outlived him and her second and third husbands, W. C. (Bill) Nanney and Charlie Carter. She doesn't remember exactly how long she was married to each and won't say which was the best husband.

"If you are married to somebody, then that person is the best, regardless. Each one of my husbands had their good sides and their faults. I don't know what they would say about me," she says with a laugh.

Her marriages produced four children. Daughter Thelma Woods, who now would be in her late 80s, disappeared in the mid-1930s and Carter says she never heard from her again. Another daughter, Claire, died in a 1987 auto accident at age 78.

Son Bill Nanney, 82, lives in San Francisco, and Bob Nanney, 67, lives in Santa Clarita near his mother. Bob calls daily and visits his mother regularly, often bringing one of her favorite meals: a cheeseburger and French fries.

Carter speaks fondly of second husband Nanney, whom she met in Colorado after Woods died of a heart attack. She thinks that she and Nanney were married for about 50 years, during which time he worked as a railroad brakeman, bill collector and door-to-door Singer sewing machine salesman.

"I was his hunting dog," she says of the Singer job. Carter scouted potential customers by visiting their homes and chatting with them before Nanney came in with the sales pitch.

"We even worked the fairs," she recalls. "I learned tailoring. I could show you in 10 minutes how to make a pattern. And then I'd make the suit for you, too. I even repaired the machines. I could do anything that I made up my mind to do."

"People used to say to me: 'How do you think you can do that? Where did you learn that?' 'Well,' I'd think to myself, 'I have common sense. I know about people. I can meet anybody and talk with anybody.' But, you know, even the most educated person doesn't use common sense. They depend on their books."

The family moved a lot during that marriage because "we had to go where we could make the sales." It wasn't uncommon for her husband to come home at 2 a.m. and announce "We've got to pack and move on, Karen," Carter says.

"I've been to a lot of places and seen a lot of things."

Their travels took them from Bingham, Ala., to Lincoln, Neb.,

from the nation's capital to Salt Lake City and Santa Monica. Florida, she says, is one state that got away. She has family there and would love to visit them, but knows her health precludes such a trip: "That's the place for old people, but I can't get there."

Among the most memorable and moving of her travels, however, was a brief visit to Washington in the mid 1960s. Carter is a descendant of John Hancock, the first signer of the Declaration of Independence, and while in Washington, son Bill took her to see Hancock's statue.

"I looked at him [Hancock] and began to cry," she recalls. "My dad, Lorenzo Dow Hancock, looked just like him."

Carter rises from her wheelchair, walks on crutches to a kitchen cabinet and pulls out a small wooden box. Inside is a pair of 17th-Century eyeglasses that she says is a Hancock family heirloom. The frame is a single piece of shaped wire, the lenses no larger than 50-cent pieces.

"This is all I have and all I know is that I am related," she says.

Carter turns the pages of an old family album, filled with photographs dating to the turn of the century. A favorite shows the gray hair that cascades to her knees.

"I've never cut my hair," she says of the long locks she generally wears in a bun. Instead, she performs a ritual she learned as a young girl from the Blackfoot Indians in Idaho.

ANACLETO RAPPING / Los Angeles Times
in Carter's trailer for Bible study.

"Have you ever seen hair burn?" she asks.

Every January, during the year's first new moon, Carter wraps a wet dishrag around her hair, exposing from four to eight inches of hair. She then lights a match and sings the ends.

She says the Indians taught her that burning hair "would renew the life and energy in it." When daughter Claire was a child, Carter burned the ends of her hair as well. "Everybody would just have a fit about that," Carter recalls. "But I always thought it was a wonderful tradition."

Often, she is asked about her hair in letters from grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, which Carter estimates number at least 100. Keeping track is difficult, but on her last birthday, Jan. 22, Carter received more than 30 birthday cards from descendants.

Friends—some from as far away as Turkey—write or phone, asking her to pray for them. Others check on her every day. A neighbor delivers the morning newspaper and throws out the garbage; his wife shops for Carter's groceries; another neighbor cleans the trailer, does laundry and sometimes helps prepare meals. A visiting nurse frequently pops in to keep tabs on Carter's health.

Neighbor Humberto Pintado, 58, has been a friend for more than 15 years. Every Thursday morning he leads a group of trailer park residents in Bible study at Carter's home.

"She calls me the teacher, but I say she is the teacher," he says. "She is a woman of tremendous faith. Her life is tied to the Scripture."

Carter is grateful for friends like Pintado. He rescued her one morning at 2 after she had fallen off her crutches while turning to open the refrigerator door the previous afternoon. It took her nine hours to push her body with one crutch to the phone in another room. With the same crutch she knocked the phone off a table and called Pintado. She was unhurt, just unable to get back on her feet.

Three months ago, she was admitted to a convalescent center because of problems with her hips and other assorted infirmities.

Carter calls the several weeks in the center her "hell-hole period," saying it not only took away her freedom, but also her dignity.

"I know this much," she says. "The Lord will take care of me if I let him. I'll crawl up here on my bed and find my pleasant spot staring out at my little mulberries and think, 'I have lived to be a happy, old woman. Don't feel sorry for me.'"

Though Carter says she has no secret for her longevity, she credits hard work, traveling, common sense, patience and "being raised in 1923 in Santa Monica by Aimee Semple McPherson at the Angelus Temple."

Carter knows that family and friends worry because she insists on living alone and caring for herself as much as possible.

She lived with son Bill after her second husband died in the early 1950s and helped raise four grandchildren. She later married Charlie Carter and moved to an Idaho ranch. After he died in 1957, she returned to California and bought the trailer she lives in today. For a time, she lived in the trailer in son Bob's back yard in Arleta. In 1972, Carter moved the trailer to its present location.

"She wants to live alone because she just doesn't want to be a burden to anybody..." says Bob Nanney. "She always remained independent. She still does her own cooking."

And she hasn't lost her sense of humor.

Carter says she enjoys living alone and has few worries:

"Sometimes the biggest problem is that old woman I live with."
